SYNOMETRICS...an Olympic Champion's Discovery!

Turn Belly Fat into a Rock-Hard Lean Stomach

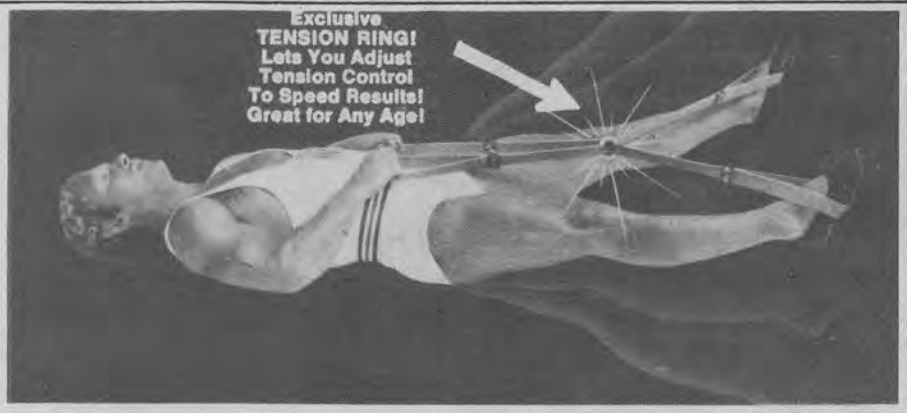
with the amazing Speed Shaper

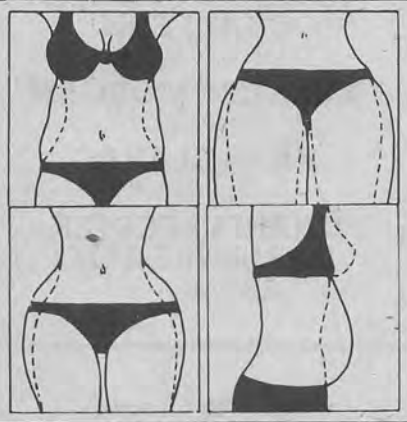
Ike Berger Today.

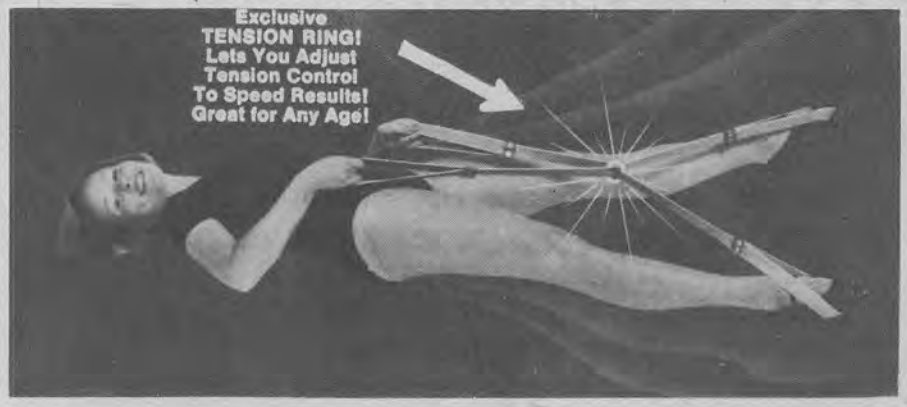
Introducing IKE BERGER
Olympic Champion

Olympic Gold medal winner (U.S. team) weightlifting • World Champion (three times) • Pan American Games Champion (twice) • National Champion (12 times) • Elected to Hall of Fame.

"I'm over 50 and I thought my fat and flab was with me for life...SYNOMETRICS "burned" it off in only 7 days. In fact results came so fast I had to cut my daily 7 minute workout to 5 minutes to slow down the slimming process. It's the most amazing method I've ever tried...and I've tried just about every gadget and gimmick I've seen in magazines and TV."







IN JUST 7 SHORT MINUTES A DAY with the "miracle" of SYNOMETRICS (scientific concept of ISOMETRIC + ISOTONIC) ...the fantastic new discovery for speed shaping away ugly, embarrassing fat and flab...to reveal a brand new rock-hard, lean, trim, handsome body!

IKE BERGER explains SYNOMETRICS™...the new EASY speed method for figure beauty

What is SYNOMETRICS? You've probably heard about the Isotonic and Isometric principle of body dynamics for years. Each method has its own believers and supporters. I used BOTH methods in my daily training. Finally, I developed a special exercise unit that employed BOTH methods AT THE SAME TIME in one device. The effect was simply amazing. I was able to keep in trim, slim shape in only a fraction of the time I previously needed!

The Science of SYNOMETRICS

I later learned the scientific reason for this amazing result. It's called SYNERGISM—meaning that when you combine two methods the result is greater than the both of them separately. I now called my new discovery SYNOMETRICS and developed a special exercise unit I call the SPEED SHAPER. And that's just what it is...a speed method to give you results in minutes, NOT hours! Now...build yourself a "fantastic looking body" with the incredible SYNOMETRICS—the invention that works on the exciting new scientific concept of ISOTONIC + ISOMETRIC.

What is the SPEED SHAPER?

Ingeniously designed, in an amazingly compact slimming & shaping discovery. • No doorknobs needed • Adjust tension to your own needs, for any age • Slip into pocket or purse (5 oz.)—fits anywhere!

IRON CLAD 14 DAY MONEY BACK GUARANTEE

In just a few days you must actually begin to see measurable, real results...or your money back promptly and without any question.

*No diet needed if daily caloric intake does not add to your present body weight.

Complete kit only $9.95

Get in on the PROFITS in SMALL ENGINE service and repair

BEAT INFLATION!
Cash in on the huge demand for small engine repair.

Work part time, full time right at home - we help you every step of the way.

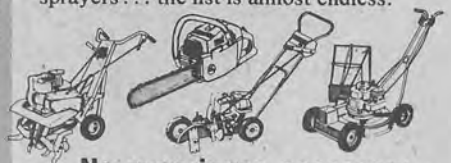
Start your own money making business!

In just a short time, you can be ready to join one of the fastest growing industries in America... an industry where qualified men are making from $10.00 to $15.00 per hour... and that's just for labor. Parts, engines and accessories add even more to the profits.

Because the small engine industry has grown so quickly, an acute shortage of qualified Small Engine Professionals exists throughout the country. In fact, it's not unusual for a good small engine man to be three to four weeks behind in the summer and at least a week behind in the winter. When you see how many small engines are in use today, it's easy to understand why qualified men command such high prices—as much as $17.50 for a simple tune-up that takes less than an hour!

65-million small engines are in service today!

That's right — there are over sixty-five million 2-cycle and 4-cycle small engines in service across the U.S.A. That's the official count from the Engine Service Assn., and new engines are being built at a rate of one-million per month! With fully accredited and approved Foley-Belsaw training, you can soon have the skill and knowledge to make top money servicing these engines. Homeowners and businessmen will seek you out and pay you well to service and repair their lawnmowers, tillers, edgers, power rakes, garden tractors, chain saws, mini-bikes, go-carts, snowmobiles, generators, snowblowers, paint sprayers... the list is almost endless.



No experience necessary.

You don't need to be a 'born mechanic' or have prior experience. If you can read, you can master this profitable trade right at home, in your sparetime, without missing a single paycheck. Lessons are fully illustrated—so clear you can't go wrong.

You receive trade secrets and business plans.

We guide you every step of the way, including tested and proven instructions on how to get business, what to charge, how to get free advertising, where to get supplies wholesale... all the "tricks of the trade"... all the inside facts you need to assure success right from the start.

Increased Income

"I've had about 8 years experience repairing small engines... but repairs were only minor... until I started the Foley-Belsaw Course."

Walter H. Strick
Campbell, California

With our famous 'learn-by-doing' training method, you get practical 'hands-on' experience with specialized tools and equipment that you'll receive with your training plus a brand-new 4 HP engine—all yours to keep!

Billy Jack, enclosing Dory Funk Jr.'s head in his massive arms, has built an enormous national fan following. As well as being an outstanding wrestler, Billy is an excellent example for children, says reader Marie Trobich.

WORTHY NICKNAME

The People's Choice. Billy Jack certainly does live up to that nickname. He will face any opponent, accept any challenge, and he always gives 110 percent of himself.

My friends and I travel to many arenas to see matches, and everywhere we go Billy is always ready and willing to sign countless autographs and allow fans to take his picture. He is always very sociable. He is so wonderful with all the boys and girls who look up to him.

Billy, my friends and I hope you realize just how much you mean to everyone here in Florida. It is great to have such an outstanding wrestler and man in our state. Don't ever leave, because we all love you!

ALL RIGHT, BOB ARMSTRONG

An open letter to Bob and Brad Armstrong:

I read Bob's message to Brad in the October 1984 issue of The Wrestler ("Bob Armstrong's Message To His Son Brad: 'DiBiase Is My Problem, Not Yours!' "), and I hope Brad read it, too. You know Brad, your dad is right. Let him worry about Ted DiBiase.

I have a lot of faith in your dad and you should, too. If any man takes care of DiBiase, Bob Armstrong is the one who will.

Listen to your dad, Brad. Make him proud, and he will get even with Ted DiBiase and make you proud. The fans are already proud of both of you!

WHAT'S HAPPENING!

By BILL APTER

Precious Paul Ellering (standing at ringside) tries to direct referee Eldin Rich's attention away from The Road Warriors' double-teaming efforts against Baron Von Raschke. The Road Warriors are the new AWA World tag team champions.

The Road Warriors are the new AWA World tag team champions. Hawk and Animal defeated the team of Baron Von Raschke and The Crusher on August 25 in The Showboat hotel in Las Vegas to win their first world tag team championship.

"I just want to express my extreme admiration for a job superbly done," said the Warriors' manager, Precious Paul Ellering. "Upon entering the AWA in August, I had every confidence that Hawk and Animal would capture the World tag team belts by Labor Day. They fulfilled my expectations more than a week ahead of schedule, and for that they should be heralded by the wrestling world as truly the one team to define tag wrestling in the decade of the '80s. Quite simply, they are awesome."

The Warriors' win created a great deal of controversy throughout the AWA, and a protest over the decision has been filed with AWA President Stanley Blackburn. Here's what happened:

Von Raschke had Animal in the clawhold and was trying to power him to the mat. Hawk came into the ring to help his partner but was knocked down to the mat by Crusher. Ellering climbed onto the ring apron. As Crusher went to hit him, referee Eldin Rich intervened. Meanwhile, Hawk recovered from Crusher's blow and climbed the ropes in the corner just as Von Raschke dropped Animal to the canvas with his clawhold. Hawk flew off the ropes and dropped Von Raschke with a clothesline, then placed a groggy Animal on top of a nearly unconscious Von Raschke. Hawk fled from the ring as referee Rich turned away from Ellering to make the three-count.

And there's a lot more championship title news this month:

Ron Bass defeated Angelo Mosca Jr. for the Mid-Atlantic heavy-

Are You Too Short?

"You can add 2-4 inches in 10 weeks or less!"
Says William A. Reldnas

"I have positive proof you can increase your height. Here are the indisputable facts.

"For many years, scientists believed height increase was not possible after the end of childhood. Recent factual data proves they were wrong. If athletes can increase the length of their limbs AFTER the age of puberty, you can certainly increase the length of your legs and complete torso and, you can do it scientifically, without artificial contraptions or possible injury by using The Height Increase Method."

While it may not yet be acceptable scientific dogma, the research sources are well known and respected scientific journals. And what's more important, if you're not 100% satisfied that The Height Increase Method is living up to all of Reldnas's claims, simply send it back for an immediate refund, no questions asked. Pensacola, Florida (Correspondent— Nicole Thompson): Rookie Scott Armstrong was the winner of the $10,000 pole battle royal. The event was spotted by the continuation of a number of rivalries, and an argument between tag team partners Arn Anderson and Jerry Stubbs that might develop into a full-scale feud.

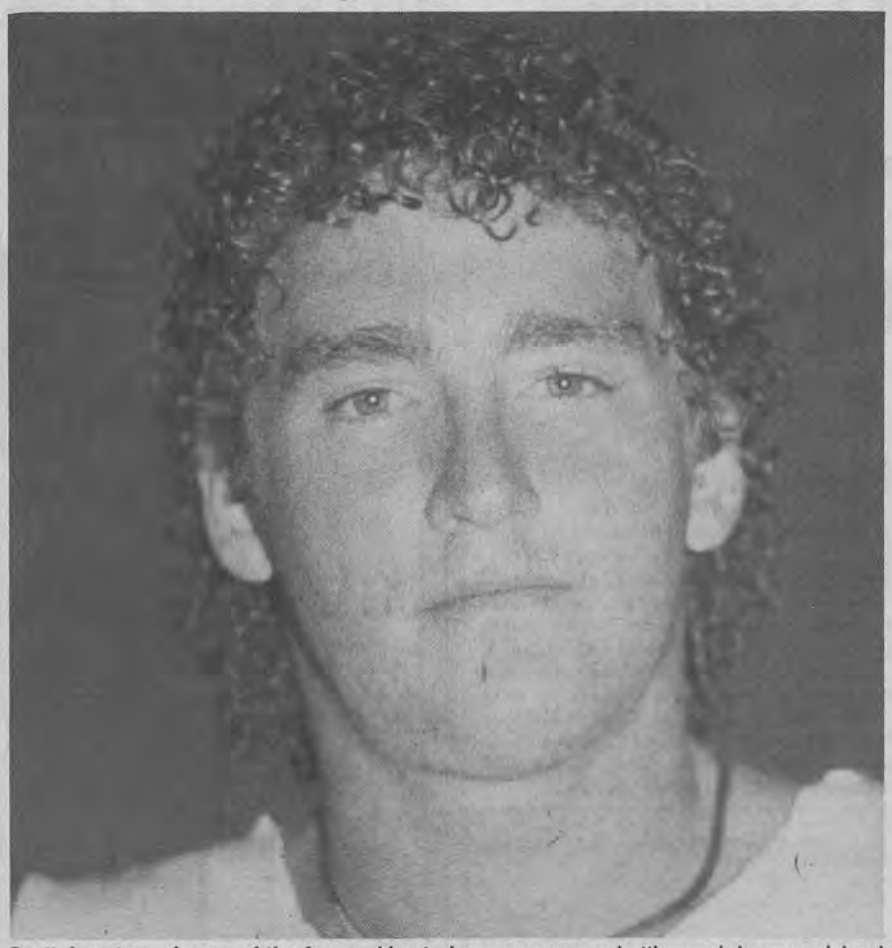
It was, in fact, the argument between Anderson and Stubbs that led to Armstrong's climbing the pole mounted to the corner ringpost and grabbing the $10,000 check. Anderson had started up the pole and was pulled down by his partner. Stubbs and Anderson, the former Southeastern tag team champions, then began to argue, presumably about who would collect the prize money.



Scott Armstrong is one of the few rookies to have ever won a battle royal. In a special pole battle royal, Scott was able to climb a pole attached to a ringpost and grab the $10,000 check.

While they argued, Armstrong and Johnny Rich surprised them from behind and eliminated the tandem by throwing them over the top rope. While Tommy Gilbert and Boris Zurkhov were double-teaming The Tonga Kid, Armstrong climbed the pole and claimed the prize.

Armstrong's victory, besides netting him a $10,000 payday, makes the rookie a surprisingly valid consideration for a bout against NWA World champion Ric Flair.

In other bouts, Bob Armstrong defeated Zurkhov by disqualification . . . Austin Idol defeated Tommy Rogers by disqualification . . . Mr. Wrestling I and Mr. Wrestling II defeated Jimmy Golden and Randy Penton . . . Rich, Armstrong, and Tonga Kid beat Gilbert, Anderson, and Stubbs.

Los Angeles, California (Correspondent—Michael Lloyd): In the main event at the Olympic Auditorium, Jimmy "Superfly" Snuka defeated Roddy Piper by disqualification in one of a series of matches that was to settle the feud between these two men.

The Superfly gained control of the early stages of the match with karate thrusts, punches, and kicks. The fans cheered as Snuka stunned Piper with a series of chops that finally sent him to the canvas. "Rowdy Roddy" retaliated with closed-fist punches.

The action spilled out of the ring and onto the arena floor. Piper grabbed a ringside chair and slammed it over Snuka's head. Snuka returned the punishment by slamming Piper's head into the steel ringpost, opening a cut on Roddy's head.

Back in the ring, the two men battled toe to toe. Piper, losing blood, gradually wilted. Sensing defeat, Roddy threw the referee into Snuka.

YOU ASKED US

Here's the monthly feature which YOU get to write! It's your chance to have a top wrestler answer YOUR question! Only the best questions will be answered—so put on your thinking caps and come up with some good ones! Address your questions—and who you would like to have answer them—to: YOU ASKED US, c/o THE WRESTLER, PO Box 48, Rockville Centre, N.Y. 11571. Questions will be answered only in this column and at our discretion

Robert Gibson and Rick Morton hope to get revenge against Jim Cornette and the Midnight Express in the Mid-South.

Q: "My question is for the Rock 'n' Roll Express, Rick Morton and Robert Gibson: I thought it was terrible when you had to leave the Mid-South. All the fans know that the Midnight Express cheated to beat you in the loser-leave-town match. When the 90-day suspension period is over, will you be coming back? I really hope so."—Christy Ainsworth, Oak Grove, LA

A: Rick Morton answered, "We miss you and all the Mid-South fans. You treated us so well, we feel like we let you all down when we lost that match. But I hope we'll be able to come back and whip Cornette and the Express for the great Mid-South fans. You should know that we're busy defending the Mid-Southern tag belts right now, but I assure you that we'll get revenge, for us and for all of you."

Q: "I have a question for Dusty Rhodes: Why don't you have a movie made about your life? I would like to know everything about your life: your childhood, how you got started in wrestling, etc. I'm sure all of your fans would love it."—Mary Richergh, Homerville, GA

Dusty Rhodes likes the idea of having his life story portrayed in a motion picture. Of course, he would be the star.

A: "It would be a dream of a motion picture," Dusty replied. "I can just see it now. The cameras pan across the Texas plain and there he is—the young, virile Dusty Rhodes, digging ditches with my friend T.C. Lee. The sun's beating down on T.C. and me, the sweat's pouring off of us. And I turn to T.C. and I say, 'I'm gonna make it, T.C. I'm gonna be the champion of the world, and then we'll never have to dig another ditch again.' Then the cameras will follow my life until that night in Tampa, Florida, when I beat Harley Race for the title. Now that's drama. Of course, I'll play myself, and when I win the Oscar I'll thank my momma and my daddy and T.C. and all my fans, 'cause without you there is no Dream."

Q: "My question is for Dennis Condrey and Bobby Eaton, the Midnight Express: I think you're a great tag team, but I

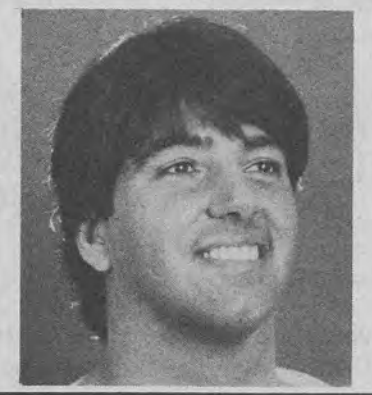
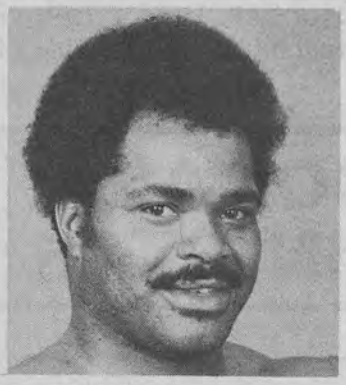
Thumbs Up

Each issue, The Wrestler will praise the noteworthy and damn those who violate the honor of wrestling. The praiseworthy receive a Thumbs Up, the disgraceful are marked with a Thumbs Down. Here is this month's roll of honor and shame.

Thumbs Up to Billy Jack: The man known throughout the wrestling world as "The People's Choice" recently appeared on televised Florida wrestling in a unique role. Billy Jack asked viewers to help with Championship Wrestling From Florida's missing children appeal. Each week, CWF airs missing children bulletins, broadcasting photos and information of several missing youngsters within the CWF viewing area. Billy Jack's support of this important program is admirable and worthy of great respect.



Thumbs Up to Rick Martel: This deserving young AWA World champion has not backed away from the repeated challenges of former champion Nick Bockwinkel. It would have been very easy for Martel to petition the AWA ratings committee claiming that he had given Bockwinkel enough matches, but Martel has refused to do this. "I want to wrestle all deserving contenders as many times as possible," Martel said.



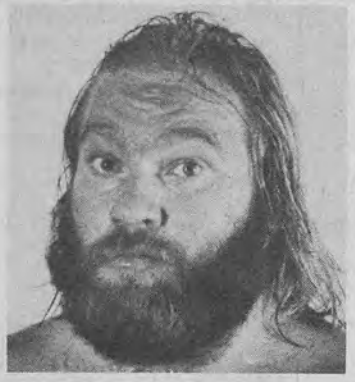
Thumbs Up to Pistol Pez Whatley: Whatley, after a successful stint in Georgia, has arrived in Florida and has quickly become one of that state's most popular wrestlers. With fans screaming their support, the "Pistol Man" captured one of the top prizes in professional wrestling, the Southern heavyweight championship, when he defeated Jim "The Anvil" Neidhardt. Whatley has once again shown the wrestling world that he is worthy of his superstar status. Congratulations, Pez!

Thumbs Up to Precious Paul Ellering: You might not like the bragging nature of the leader of the "Legion of Doom," but you cannot doubt his talent. Ellering predicted that his Road Warriors would win the AWA World tag team championship by Labor Day. He was only nine days off. The Warriors beat Crusher and Baron Von Raschke for the belts on August 25 in Las Vegas. Their quick rise in the AWA tag team rankings and subsequent title victory are a testament to Ellering's managerial genius.

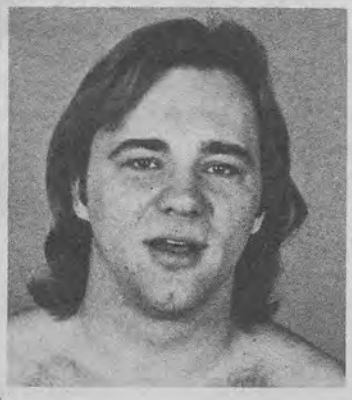
Thumbs Down

Thumbs Down to Eddie Gilbert: It's sad to see a promising young athlete resort to such tactics as using a heavy steel chain against an opponent in order to win a title. In this case, the title was the Mid-Southern International heavyweight title, and the opponent was Gilbert's former tag team partner, Tommy "Wildfire" Rich. Gilbert was beating Rich with a chain during the match until referee Paul Morton threw it out of the ring. But then Gilbert got a second chain, from Jimmy Hart, and used it to attack Rich a second time! Thumbs down not only to Gilbert, but to Jimmy Hart as well.

Thumbs Down to Kevin Sullivan: This self-avowed Satan worshiper continues to maintain his hideous dominance of the Florida wrestling scene. Most recently, Sullivan has taken Mike Davis and turned him into . . . "The American Dream—Dusty Rhodes!" To assert that Davis is the one and only Dusty Rhodes is absurd. Virgil Riley Runnels—the real Dusty Rhodes—deserves to receive the respect of everyone in wrestling, including Kevin Sullivan. This charade with Mike Davis is an insult to Dusty's remarkable career.



Thumbs Down to Big John Studd: Studd, who is currently challenging for Hulk Hogan's WWF title, is still claiming that he has never been bodyslammed. Fans in many parts of the country, including a sellout crowd at New Jersey's Byrne Meadowlands Arena, have seen Studd slammed by Andre the Giant. Studd must believe the fans are blind, or maybe he feels they are just too stupid to remember. He is doing nothing more than boring us with this false claim.



Thumbs Down to Larry Zbyszko: "The New Living Legend," as he likes to be called, entered the AWA confident that he would quickly rise to prominence. Zbyszko underestimated the talent in the AWA, however. His quick rise and supposed title takeover have been stunted. Zbyszko's arrogance has finally gotten the best of him. Hopefully, he will learn from his mistakes. Unfortunately, he probably won't. □

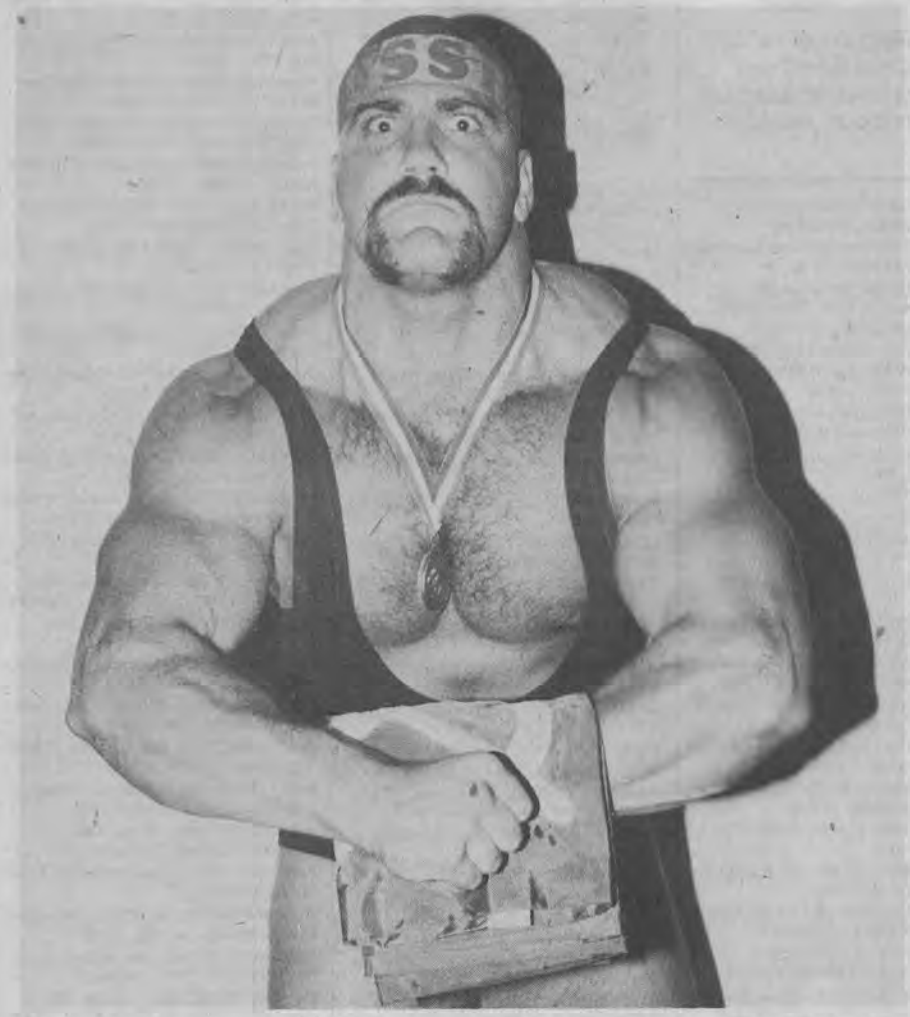
INTRODUCING NIKITA KOLOFF



NIKITA KOLOFF KNELT in front of a padded bench, his arms outstretched and his palms facing up. In each hand was a 40-pound dumbell. The sweat poured from his forehead as he curled his wrists toward the ceiling, and then back down.

"Fourteen, 15, 16, 17 . . ." He exhaled audibly after each count, straining to complete 20 repetitions. As he attempted the 20th and final rep, the dumbell in his left hand slipped from his grasp.

Ivan Koloff, Nikita's uncle, stopped his count and began barking what seemed to be a reprimand. He spoke quickly and loudly in his native Russian. The two communicate only in Russian, and besides, Nikita's English is poor at best. Ivan's raspy baritone echoed off the walls of the gym. Nikita sat there motionless, accepting his punishment quietly.

The elder Koloff would not reveal what he said to his nephew. "Not for American ears," he said. "Personal. None of your business."

He returned to Nikita, whose forearm muscles bulged like Popeye's. He took each arm separately and rolled them between his hands. "Soreness is buildup of lactic acid," Ivan said. "Massage, heat, whirlpool will help." He turned to his nephew and barked, "Squats."

Ivan's NWA World tag team partner, Don Kernodle, watched the training session from a stool in the corner of the gym. "He's doing a lot of forearm work. The harder those forearms are, the more effective the cobra clutch is. That forearm presses right into the carotid artery."

Kernodle is Nikita's manager of record, but he leaves the training to Uncle Ivan. "The Soviets are so far advanced in training methods," Kernodle said. "Their workouts are so much more intense. That's why you see Russians dominating the athletic world. If they had come to the Olympics, there's no doubt that America would have suffered."

Nikita was one of the Russians who suffered because his country did not attend the 23rd Olympiad in Los Angeles. When the Soviet Union boycotted the Games, Nikita, who was entered in an unprecendented combination of events—wrestling, weightlifting, and the hammer throw—had the choice of holding on to his amateur status for another four years until the 1988 Games, or becoming a professional wrestler.

"Since he was a child in Russia," Kernodle explained, "he has been hearing about his uncle's success in America. Ivan is a hero there because he is a representative of Russia's superiority over the U.S.

"Nikita told Ivan that since he began wrestling as an amateur, his dream was to come to America and wrestle with his uncle," Kernodle continued. "He couldn't wait until after 1988."

Turning pro, however, would mean that Koloff would have to give up his chance to attain the most unusual gold medal triple in Olympic history. "Nikita would have loved the challenge, but it just wasn't possible," Kernodle said. "As soon as he made his decision, he contacted his uncle, and with my help, we got him to America."

The Soviet Union is not in the habit of letting its best athletes just leave the country. Just how Kernodle was able to bring Koloff to the United States is a mystery. "I have my connections," was all he would say.

Through his uncle's interpretation, Nikita expressed his immediate goals. "It is very important to Nikita that he wins matches and eventually wins titles," Ivan said. "But most important to him is to show the American people that Russia is superior to their country in every way."

In a recent bout against Vinnie Valentino (who gave away three inches in height and 50 pounds to Koloff) the Russian dominated the action from the opening bell. He attacked Valentino's left arm and shoulder immediately, practically wrenching the arm from the rest of his body with armbars and hammerlocks. The pain weakened Valentino, who despite attempts to battle back could do nothing to improve his position. He was eventually forced to succumb to Koloff's backbreaker.

Other bouts have ended similarly. Opponent Gary Royal said that Koloff's hiptoss was enough to convince him that he was overmatched. "I thought I could at least retain some dignity and give it a good fight," Royal said, "but he wouldn't even leave me that. This guy is brutal."

These preliminary matches, Kernodle said, are providing Koloff with invaluable experience, but they are also leading to a challenge of the Mid-Atlantic heavyweight title. "The Mid-Atlantic title is a natural for Nikita," Kernodle said. "In fact, I would push for the match sooner, but Nikita and Ivan want to wait a little while.

"I feel that Nikita could handle a title shot right now, but by nature the Russian people are perfectionists. They don't like to fail. So if it means a few more wrestlers get the crap beat out of them on the way to Nikita's first championship, it really doesn't matter much. The Russian people are also very perseverant. He'll win that title. He'll get the job done."

On the other side of the gym, Nikita performed deep squats with a 450-pound barbell resting on his shoulders as his uncle counted the reps. "Yeah," Kernodle said, "he'll get the job done." □

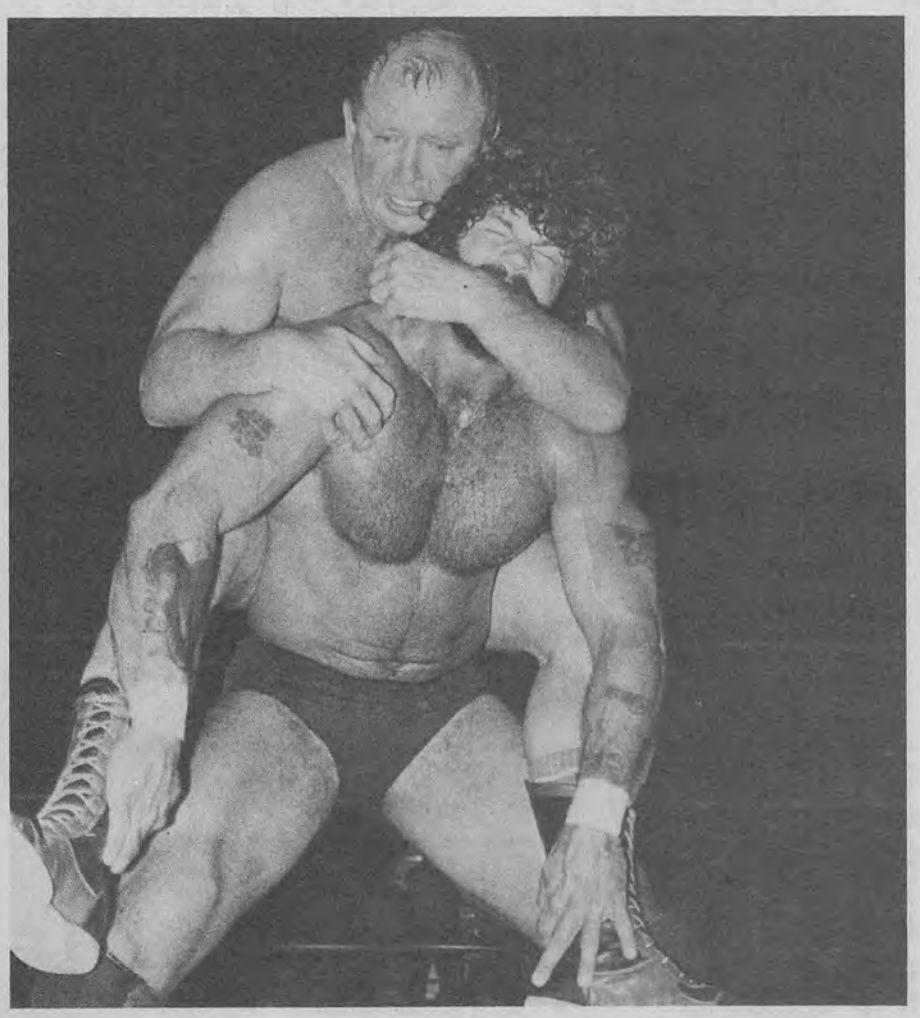
Q&A

Each month, The Wrestler will present a "Question and Answer" forum with an important figure in the wrestling world. It is your chance to meet wrestling's biggest stars as they answer the questions uppermost in the fans' minds



Q: You know, Dory, a lot of people are asking the same question that I'm about to ask you: Why? Why did you slap Billy Jack the way you did, particularly when he was right in the middle of complimenting you?

A: You call being called "second-best" a compliment? Where I come from, that's an insult. I don't settle for second-best in anything, Apter. That snot-nosed punk Billy Jack was insulting me, and I don't take that kind of crap from anyone.

Q: But it wasn't an insult, he was . . .

A: And particularly I don't like being called second-best to that fat slob Dusty Rhodes. If Billy Jack considers Rhodes so much better than me, that doesn't say a whole hell of a lot for me, now, does it? Hell no.

Q: So you thought you'd slap some sense into Billy Jack.

A: I just reacted out of instinct.

Q: Was it also your instinct that told you to slip a foreign object to Black Bart when he was wrestling Billy Jack?

A: My instinct tells me to do a lot of things.

Q: Now wait a second. I was at ringside shooting photos of that match, and I recall Billy Jack grabbing Black Bart at the end of that match and demanding to know who gave him the object. And Bart

DORY FUNK JR.

DORY FUNK JR. has returned to the Florida wrestling scene following an absence of nearly three years. Funk, the most unpopular wrestler in Florida during most of his four-year reign as NWA World champion from 1969 through 1973, is once again a hated man in the Sunshine State. All Funk had to do to regain his previous status was become involved in an ugly feud with "The People's Choice" Billy Jack. Billy Jack has always admired Funk. During a TV interview, he told Dory that next to Dusty Rhodes he admired him more than any other wrestler. Funk, taking exception to the comparison with "The American Dream," slapped Billy in the face. The incident has sparked a bitter series of matches between the two men. Senior Editor Bill Apter spoke to Funk recently about the feud and other developments in his career.

screamed: "Funk, Funk, Funk!"

A: Yeah, well, what do you expect? Billy Jack was manhandling him, and he'd say anything to escape a beating, right?

Q: So you deny handing the object to Black Bart?

A: Not at all. I gave the object to Black Bart, and I'll give other objects to other wrestlers in other matches until Billy Jack finally learns to keep his fool mouth shut.

Q: Now wait a second . . .

A: No! You wait a second. This kid comes into Florida, starts getting all kinds of cheers from fans, all kinds of admiration from other wrestlers, all kinds of press coverage. Then he starts talking like he owns the place, making all kinds of value judgments about people. This kid is a snot-nosed rookie, and he's got to learn respect for other people. I slapped him because he was showing me disrespect, and he shows disrespect to almost everyone he wrestles. I aim to whip some respect into this kid.

Q: By slipping foreign objects to his opponents and using your bullwhip on him every chance he gets?

A: By proving to him that there's a hell of a lot more to the sport of wrestling than the cheers of the fans, a couple of cheap wins, and a lot of empty talk.

Q: Sounds like you're jealous.

A: Jealous? Of what? I am a former NWA World heavyweight champion. I have proven time and again that I am a force to be reckoned with on the wrestling scene. And what has Billy Jack proven? That he can lose something like the Florida heavyweight title to Superstar Billy Graham and not even bother to muster a moderately respectable challenge to regain that title? That he can win over the cheers of the fans and then disappoint them by losing that belt?

Billy Jack does not intend to let Funk use his bullwhip against him (below). The former NWA champion applies a painful leglock on Billy (top). Billy has to be careful to keep his shoulders off the canvas (opposite page).

Q: I don't think that's very fair. Billy Jack has proven his worth as a wrestler many times. He's young, and he's still got a long way to go in this sport, and he's . . .

A: But that's exactly my point! He's a young punk rookie with a long way to go. But he doesn't think that, and that's my job: to teach him that he does have a long way to go.

Q: And you've achieved that goal in your series of matches with him?

A: I think my series of matches with Billy Jack has begun to make a point, yes. Because Billy Jack is beginning to learn. I've pinned him clean in several matches, and . . .

Q: Now it's your turn to wait a second. I saw one of your matches with Billy Jack, and you used the ropes for leverage to score a pin.

A: The referee scored a three-count pinfall. Period. If he didn't see any feet on the ropes, then I have to abide by the referee's decision and say that there weren't any feet on the ropes.

Q: Look, this is getting ridiculous.

A: I agree. Talk is useless, it's action in the ring that counts. You just sit back and watch, because I'm going to be whipping some sense into that punk. He'll learn to respect me, and he'll learn it the hard way. □

THE WRESTLER PANEL EXAMINES

KING KONG BUNDY

Each month THE WRESTLER'S panel of experts will offer their candid opinions of one of wrestling's stars. Whether an up-and- coming youngster or an established superstar in his own right, our panel will always be frank and honest without fear of reprisal

King Kong Bundy might weigh 420 pounds, but it would be a mistake to consider him anything but a superb athlete. He moves that 420 pounds like another wrestler might move 210. And that makes him doubly dangerous. Above, Ronnie Garvin is the victim of Bundy's "big splash."

BRUNO SAMMARTINO
"I have never been able to understand how someone who is enormously overweight could actually function as a professional wrestler. I watched Haystacks Calhoun do it for years and I never understood it. Bundy may not be as big as Haystacks, but once you get beyond a certain weight, I guess it doesn't really matter. I'll tell you though, once he covers you, you better be pretty strong if you're gonna kick out from under 420 pounds."

Bruno Sammartino is known as wrestling's "Living Legend." He is the most popular wrestler to ever hold the WWF title.

VERNE GAGNE
"The one thing about these big wrestlers is that they really can't surprise you with wrestling styles. You can be pretty sure that a guy like King Kong Bundy isn't going to catch you in a flying headscissors. His weight gives him obvious advantages, however. For one, he's hard to lift. It's hard for me to understand since my best weapons, speed and agility, were so opposite from his. As long as he wins, how can you argue?"

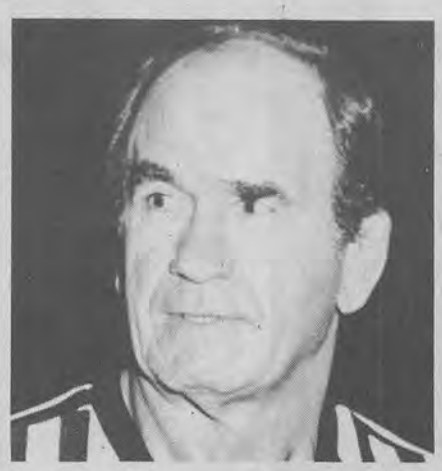
Verne Gagne held the AWA title a record 11 times. He was named "Best Scientific Wrestler" of the last 25 years.

GENE KINISKI
"I was pretty worried about Bundy for a while. It looked like he was going the way of a lot of other brainless big men like Haystacks Calhoun and Gorilla Monsoon, who decided to wrestle for the fans and not for themselves. Now it seems he's back on the right track with Jimmy Hart as his manager. Hart already helped him win a title, and I think that's only the beginning. If he plays his cards right, Bundy could become a legend."

Gene Kiniski is a rugged Canadian who was NWA World champion in the late 1960s.

BUDDY ROGERS
"I'll tell ya boy, I've seen King Kong Bundy wrestle a few times and I've just been amazed at how much athletic ability he has for a man his size. He might not be Antonino Rocca, but he can move around better than you would think a 420-pounder could. What bothers me now is that he's hooked up with this Jimmy Hart character in Tennessee. Hart's a low-down criminal, and under his influence, Bundy could develop into one himself."

Buddy Rogers is the only man to hold both the NWA World title and the WWF title.



LOU THESZ
"It seems to me that King Kong Bundy knows two things. The first one is anger. That drove him into his feud with The Road Warriors. The other is money, which is why he signed to wrestle for Jimmy Hart. I feel that to really be successful in wrestling, you have to love the sport. Does he love money more? Does anger come before both? The mark of a great wrestler is if he'd be willing to wrestle for free. I don't think Bundy would."

Lou Thesz held the NWA World title six times during his fabulous 50-year career. Many consider him the greatest all-round wrestler in history.

EDDIE GRAHAM
"Sure, King Kong Bundy wins his share of matches, but I think it's 95 percent because of his size. Look at his background. He has no amateur wrestling training. He was a bouncer in a bar before he became a wrestler. I don't think that's adequate training for a career in the ring. It would be nice to say that he's learned a lot about wrestling since he started, but all he really does is beat men up. He's not a wrestler."

Eddie Graham is a former co-holder of the World tag team title, and was a top contender for the NWA World title for more than 20 years.

"Tony Atlas is incredible. He must work out in his sleep. He's easily the most dedicated man in wrestling, there is absolutely no doubt about it. But . . . "

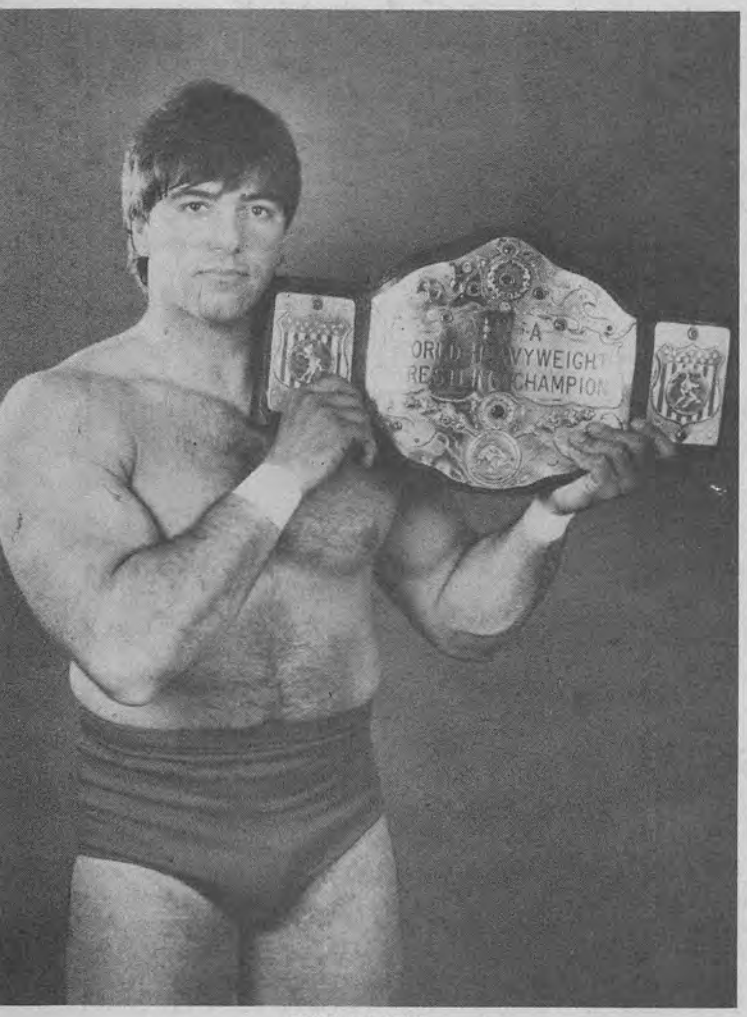
"Rick Martel has brought class back to the AWA title. Nick Bockwinkel almost sunk that title into the sewer when he held it. Rick has made it a classy title again. He's a great wrestler, a great scientific wrestler. But . . . "

" . . . But this is my title. And no one is going to take it away from me."

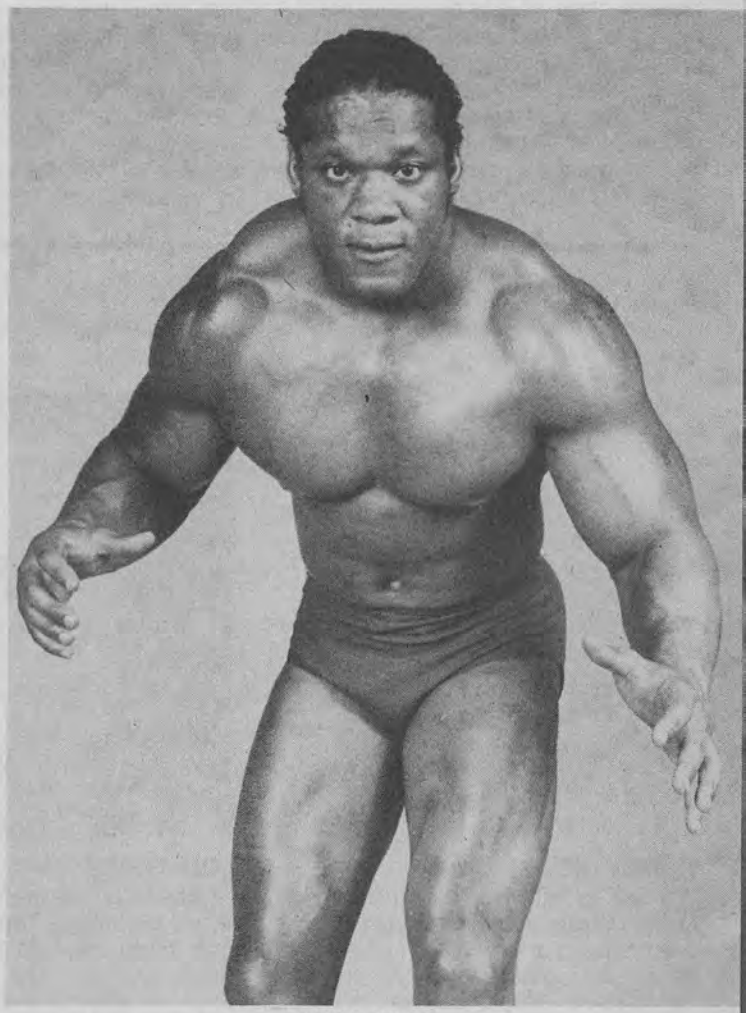
" . . . But I want that belt, and I plan to take it."

AWA World Champion Rick Martel vs. Tony Atlas

THE SHOWDOWN THAT MUST HAPPEN!



RICK MARTEL



TONY ATLAS

Rick Martel has fought back the challenges of former champions Nick Bockwinkel and Jumbo Tsuruta, proving that his AWA title victory in May was no fluke. To prove his greatness, however, the experts and the fans agree that Martel must defeat "Mr. U.S.A." Tony Atlas. It's a match everyone, including the wrestlers, is looking forward to

BOTH MEN ARE careful at first. They hesitate. They stare into each other's eyes, yet they know exactly how close their hands are to meeting.

Their hands interlock. Their eyes remain fixed. Slowly, but steadily, one man gains an advantage in this test of strength. Veins begin to bulge from his forearms as his hands push downward. Suddenly, with one primitive grunt and a final burst of energy, his opponent drops to his knees.

Standing before a kneeling Steve Regal, Tony Atlas continues to apply pressure. He looks down as his victim writhes in pain. Atlas' face breaks into a wide, toothy smile. Atlas loves for his opponents to test his strength. Time after time they fall the same way Regal has. Atlas' strength is his greatest asset, and he is proud of that fact.

Atlas' smile is only rivalled by that of another AWA star, whose grin is noticeable almost all the time: when he walks into the ring, when he flusters an opponent with a series of armdrags, when he lands a dropkick flush on an opponents chin, and sometimes, when he's just sitting at home shining his AWA World championship belt. Yes, Rick Martel is a happy man these days as well.

Both of these men can't keep smiling forever, however. Eventually, they are going to have to meet in the ring. And even if their match is clean and scientific, one man—the loser—will be a very unhappy man at its conclusion.

Since arriving in the AWA last July, Atlas has put together an impressive string of victories over opponents like Regal, Larry Zbyszko, and Mr. Saito. His ranking has moved from number 10 to number three in only one month, and his momentum is carrying him toward the number-one challenger's position to Martel's title.

As Atlas continues to win match after match, a growing number of fans are demanding that he receive a shot at Martel's title. "He deserves it," said Bob Franklin, a fan from Sheboygan, Wisconsin. "Tony is some wrestler. Look at him. More than that, watch him wrestle. He's beaten the best. He's earned a title shot. I just hope he gets it."

The legendary Verne Gagne, a nine-time AWA World champion, has been a vocal supporter of Martel's since the French Canadian won the title from Tsuruta in May. "No matter who has the belt, I'll always think of the AWA title as my belt," Gagne said. "Rick Martel is carrying on a great tradition that was almost destroyed by Nick Bockwinkel. Dignity has been restored to the title, and that makes me happy.

"I would love for to Rick hold the title for a long time," Gagne continued, "but I also want to see

How You Can Write To Tito Santana

SINCE THE WWF Intercontinental heavyweight title was formed back in 1979, only five men have worn the championship belt: Pat Patterson, Ken Patera, Pedro Morales (twice), Magnificent Muraco (twice), and Tito Santana.

Among them, the current WWF Intercontinental champion, Tito Santana, is being hailed by many WWF fans as the best.

Santana won the title on February 11, 1984, when he pinned Magnificent Muraco in Boston. In the months since his victory, Santana has become one of the most popular men in the entire WWF. Indeed, fans have flooded the offices of The Wrestler with letters

There are many fans of WWF wrestling who believe that Tito Santana is the greatest WWF Intercontinental champion ever. They would like to be able to tell him this in person, but that's just not possible. Now, The Wrestler offers the next best thing: You can write to Tito Santana and be certain that he will receive your mail!

asking the same question:

How can I write to Tito Santana?

"I think Tito is the cutest wrestler in the world today," writes Annie Maslin of Bronx, New York. "I was so happy when he won the Intercontinental belt, I cried for hours. He really deserves the title, certainly a lot more than that beach bum, Magnificent Muraco.

"I would give anything to be able to sit down and talk with Tito," Annie continues. "I would tell him exactly what I think of him, how much I admire him, how I think he's the best champion to ever wear that belt, and how I hope he'll win the WWF heavyweight belt someday.

"Unfortunately," Annie realizes, "this will probably never happen. It's too bad, but I know that there are a lot of fans around the countrye who feel the same way I do. Of course, it would be totally impossible for Tito to meet with each and every one of us.

"So what I've done in the past is write letters to him. I send them to Madison Square Garden and other arenas, and hope that they'll be forwarded to Tito, but who knows? Maybe they get to him, maybe they get thrown out. I never know for sure.

"That's why I'm writing to The Wrestler, because I hope that maybe you can provide me with an address to write to Tito where I know for sure he'll get my letter. Please, you must help me. I want to write to Tito so badly, and I don't know where else to turn."

Well, Annie, you've written to the right place. Because of letters like yours, The Wrestler has decided to forgo our usual policy of discouraging personal mail to wrestlers.

As a service to our readers, we will take all the personal mail for Tito Santana and forward those letters to him, making certain that he receives those letters personally.

"Generally, we have various addresses on different wrestlers and we try to forward personal mail to them as often as possible," Editor-in-Chief Peter King explains. "But sometimes wrestlers move around so much that it's impossible to deliver their mail. That's why we discourage fans from sending letters through the magazine.

"In this case, however, we're going to break our usual policy and invite Tito's fans to send letters for him to us," King continued. "We will then forward that mail to Tito personally.

Mail for Tito should be addressed to:
Tito Santana
c/o The Wrestler
Box 48
Rockville Centre, NY 11571

"What we're going to have to do in this case is establish a deadline," King said. "Usually, when we have any kind of a contest or a fan poll or anything else where we are asking our readers to send mail to us, we wind up receiving letters several months after the magazine has actually gone on sale at the newsstands.

"In this case, we're going to establish a deadline for letters to Tito," King continued. "This issue of The Wrestler goes on sale October 9, so the deadline for letters to Tito will be November 15. Any letters for Tito that we receive by November 15 will be guaranteed to be forwarded to him personally."

Indeed, this is a very unique opportunity for WWF wrestling fans. But then, Tito Santana is a most unique wrestler. He has legions of fans across the country, fans who are all waiting for the opportunity to let him know how they feel.

This is your opportunity to let Tito know how you feel. Write a letter to Tito to the address mentioned above, and as long as we receive it by November 15, you can be assured that it will be hand delivered to Tito Santana personally.

The Tully Blanchard-Rick Steamboat Feud:

WILL DUSTY RHODES END IT . . . OR MAKE IT WORSE?

Dusty Rhodes has arrived in the Mid-Atlantic region and has landed in the middle of the biggest and most complex feud those fans have ever witnessed. Dusty has already pledged his support to Rick Steamboat against Tully Blanchard, but will his involvement help the fan favorite or just make the situation worse?

Photos by Floyd See

By Joseph Bua

I AM NOT the first, and I won't be the last, to compare Dusty Rhodes to The Lone Ranger. Dusty doesn't wear a mask, but he does seem to show up just when he's needed.

"The Lone Ranger?" Dusty wondered. "I like that, J.B., I like that a whole lot. Dusty Rhodes ridin' down the plain on a white horse toward some damsel in distress with the wind blowin' in my face and the sun shaded by my 10-gallon white hat. But remember, The Lone Ranger's hat never fell off. Not even in a hurricane."

That's good to know, because Dusty is not chasing after any damsels, at least not right now. Dusty has just landed in the middle of the biggest twister Mid-Atlantic wrestling has ever seen. They're calling it a Rick Steamboat grabs Tully Blanchard's hair and seeks the fans' approval before inflicting more punishment (above). Dusty Rhodes (top) has observed the Mid-Atlantic "superfeud" firsthand and plans to do something about it.

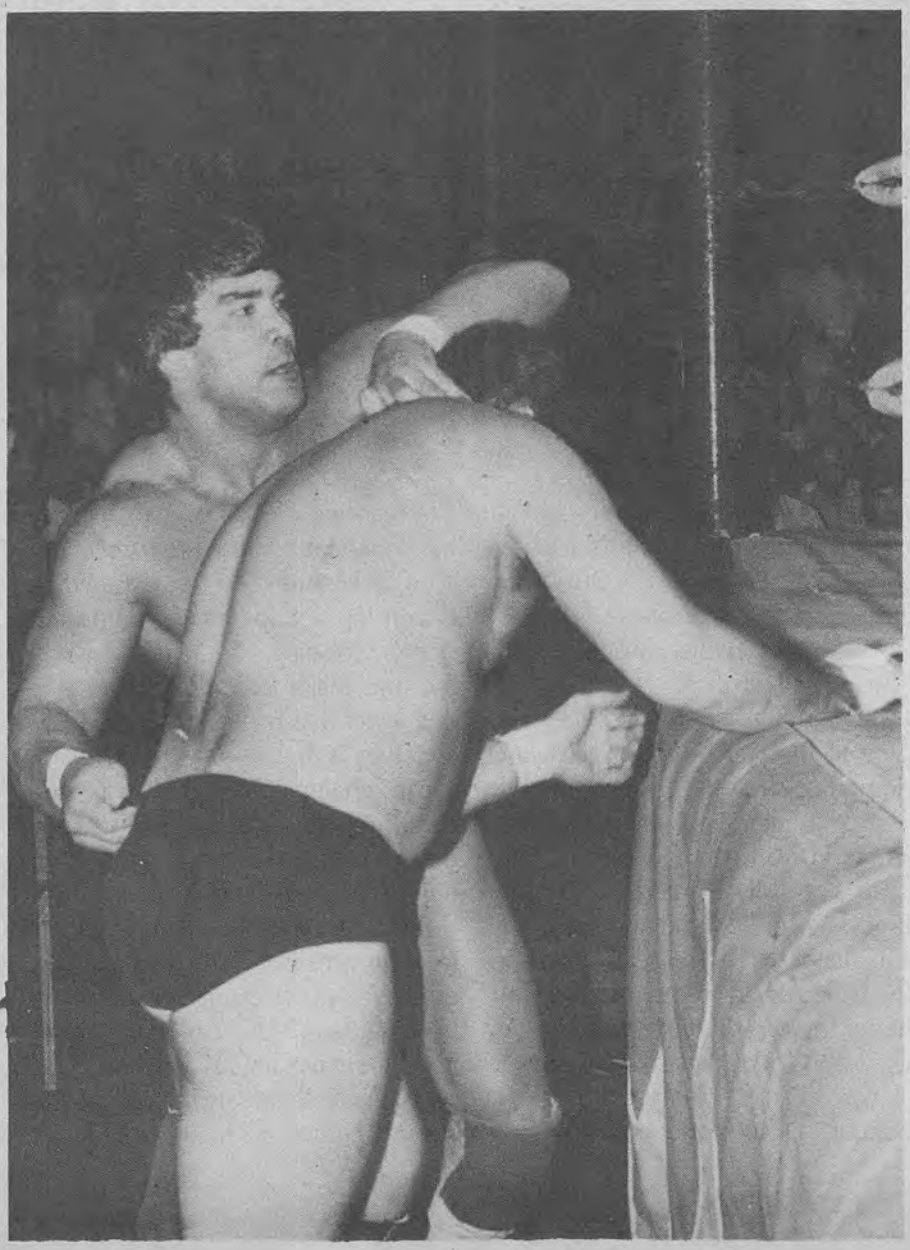
Steamboat, feeling the pain of Blanchard's headlock, grasps the ring apron (above). After getting the better of a ringside exchange, Steamboat lifts Blanchard back into the ring (below).



"superfeud," and the combatants include four of the biggest names in professional wrestling: NWA World champion Ric Flair, veteran Wahoo McDaniel, popular superstar Ricky Steamboat, and the much-less-than-popular "superbrat" of professional wrestling, Tully Blanchard.

"The Dream is now gonna tell y'all what's goin' on," Rhodes said, "so bring your eyes real close to the page and read up, daddy. You cannot blame Wahoo McDaniel for what is goin' on here in the Mid-Atlantic area. It's a disease, a temporary disease that will eventually end, so what you have to do is kill what's perpetuating the illness, and that is Tully—ptui—I have to spit every time I say the name, Blanchard.

"I can't believe what has been goin' on here in the Mid-Atlantic area," Dusty said. "I saw my good friend the 'Boogie Woogie Man' down in Memphis, Tennessee, and he told me that I wouldn't believe what was goin' on with my man Wahoo. Now I can wrap my mind around almost anything; U.F.O. sightings, aliens, all kinds of strange phenomena, but I could not believe the words that were coming out of Jimmy Valiant's mouth.

"I said, 'Jimmy, man, you've been Boogie Woogieing so much that the left side of your brain is mixing into your right, and that ain't right.' But he said he was being straight with the Dream, so I just had to get over here to see what was goin' on. These pretty eyes o' mine don't lie, daddy. Wahoo has turned his back on everyone, including Flair, Steamboat, Mark Youngblood, Valiant—it's just unbelieveable. I got here and saw all kinds of things that just rubbed me the wrong way."

What Dusty saw was his longtime friend, Wahoo McDaniel, "wrestling on the dark side," he said. "Not as dark as Kevin Sullivan and his Temple of Gloom, but dark enough so that the Dream is wondering what could possibly happen next. If Wahoo McDaniel can turn his back on his friends, then Big Bird can crap all over Ernie and Bert's windshield, ya know what I'm sayin'?" Obviously, Dusty wasn't too pleased.

"Wahoo McDaniel was an idol," Dusty remembered. "He was an inspiration for all the li'l folk who came to the matches to watch good triumph over evil. Wahoo was a saint of a man. And now I find him gettin' in with an obnoxious little creep like Tully Blanchard, the only disgrace ever to graduate from my alma mater, West Texas State University. It brought a tear to my eye, and then a thump, thump, thump, to my heart, and it that hasn't stopped yet.

"You can't blame the man, though," Dusty continued. "Wahoo is a man with a heavy heart, J.B. He has looked back on his career and seen a lifetime of fine, upstanding citizenship in this world of professional wrestling. Yet, he's missing the one major accomplishment, the one jewel that makes a career shine, and that is the NWA World heavyweight championship. And now he's bitter, and he's taking his bitterness out of all of us who care about him."

Rhodes explained that Wahoo's teaming with Blanchard was just one of the ways McDaniel was venting his bitterness. "Don't be congratulating the Dream for his brilliance," he said, "because this was not my discovery. I came in in the middle of this. The man responsible for this brilliant idea is Ricky Steamboat. He's goin' after Blanchard already. And now with 'Stardust' in on the action, there's no way that little brat is gonna survive. We're gonna pound him into the mat like a nail into plywood."

But will Rhodes' involvement put an end to the Blanchard-Wahoo tandem, or will it trigger a stronger bond between them? Will the two team up against Rhodes and Steamboat? "Let them try," Rhodes said. "Maybe when Wahoo sees up close and personal what kind of a little scum Tully Blanchard is, he'll come back to his senses. Maybe Wahoo is so blinded by his frustration that he can't see. Either way, daddy, I gotta try. You know that I have never been one to stand on the sidelines. I'm gonna be in there pitchin' away, givin' it my best shot. I owe that to Wahoo. I know that some people might think I'm crazy for wanting to do anything for the man after the things he's said about me, but that's the way I am. I'm a forgivin' so and so, J.B.

"So I'm givin' Ricky my support. Tully Blanchard is like an incubator for Wahoo McDaniel. He's making the germs of hatred grow. Well, I'm gonna pour a bucket of ice on Tully Blanchard's fire. The man is a disgrace, daddy. A damned disgrace. But don't worry, 'cause the Dream is comin' to the rescue. Hi-Yo Silver, Away."

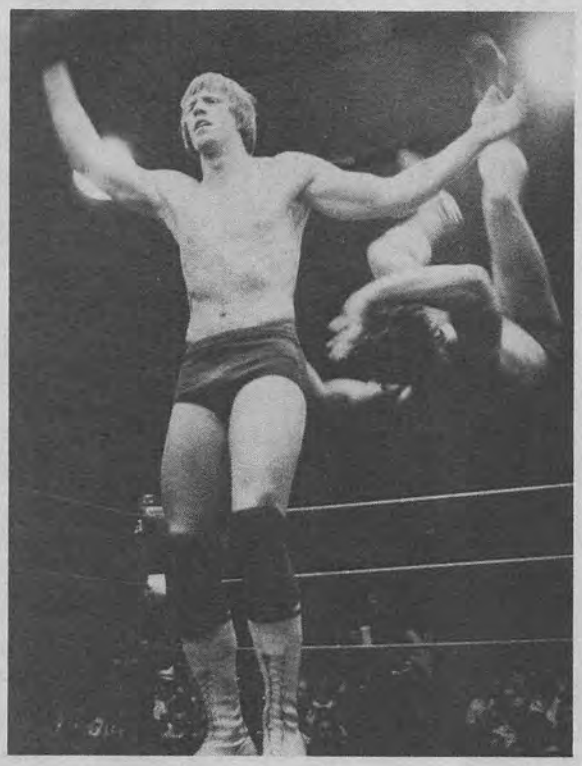
Mike Von Erich Wins The World Class American Title:



AND HIS FATHER FEARS FOR HIS SAFETY!

It's been a big year for Mike Von Erich. The World Class rookie sensation has risen to the top of the wrestling world, following admirably in the grand tradition of Von Erich excellence. Fritz Von Erich is proud of his son's achievements. But Mike's latest success—defeating Gino Hernandez for the American title—also has his father very worried

MIKE VON ERICH'S face wears two distinct expressions these days as he enters the ring.

Climbing through the ring ropes with the World Class American heavyweight belt strapped around his waist, Mike often bears a wide smile on his face. He is happy to have captured the American title from Gino Hernandez, and he is happy to be receiving the cheers of the World Class wrestling fans.

But one has got to question whether he is truly happy holding that American title.

A close look at Mike's face reveals that there is a large element of worry behind that smile. You don't have to go far to discern the reasons for that worry—Mike Von Erich is a rookie wrestler faced with the greatest challenge of his life: defending his first major title.

"It kind of scares me sometimes," Mike told The Wrestler in a recent interview. "A lot of success has come to me in a relatively short period of time. I'm really trying hard to keep a cool head and a proper perspective on the whole thing.

"It's also strange to be in the position of defending a title instead of challenging for one," Mike continued. "I've been in that position before, but it had to do with the World Class six-man tag team title. In that case, I had my brothers along with me—we all kind of relied on each other. But now it's just me alone, and that's a very different situation."

When speaking with Mike, one doesn't get the impression that he's actually afraid. It's more of an impression that he's struggling to become accustomed to a new sensation.

But when speaking with Mike's father, Fritz Von Erich, one gets the impression that he is truly fearful for his son's safety. It could be due to the natural protective instincts of a father for his son . . . or it could be due to the wisdom that comes with decades of experience in the wrestling ring.

"I've been keeping a close eye on Mike," Fritz said, "and I've got to say that I'm so proud of him, it's almost unbelievable. My boy has come along so far in the past year, he's been so successful so quickly."

We asked Fritz if he too has noticed the double-edged emotion in Mike's face these days.

"Yes, I have, and I hesitate to say it's because he's not happy. I think

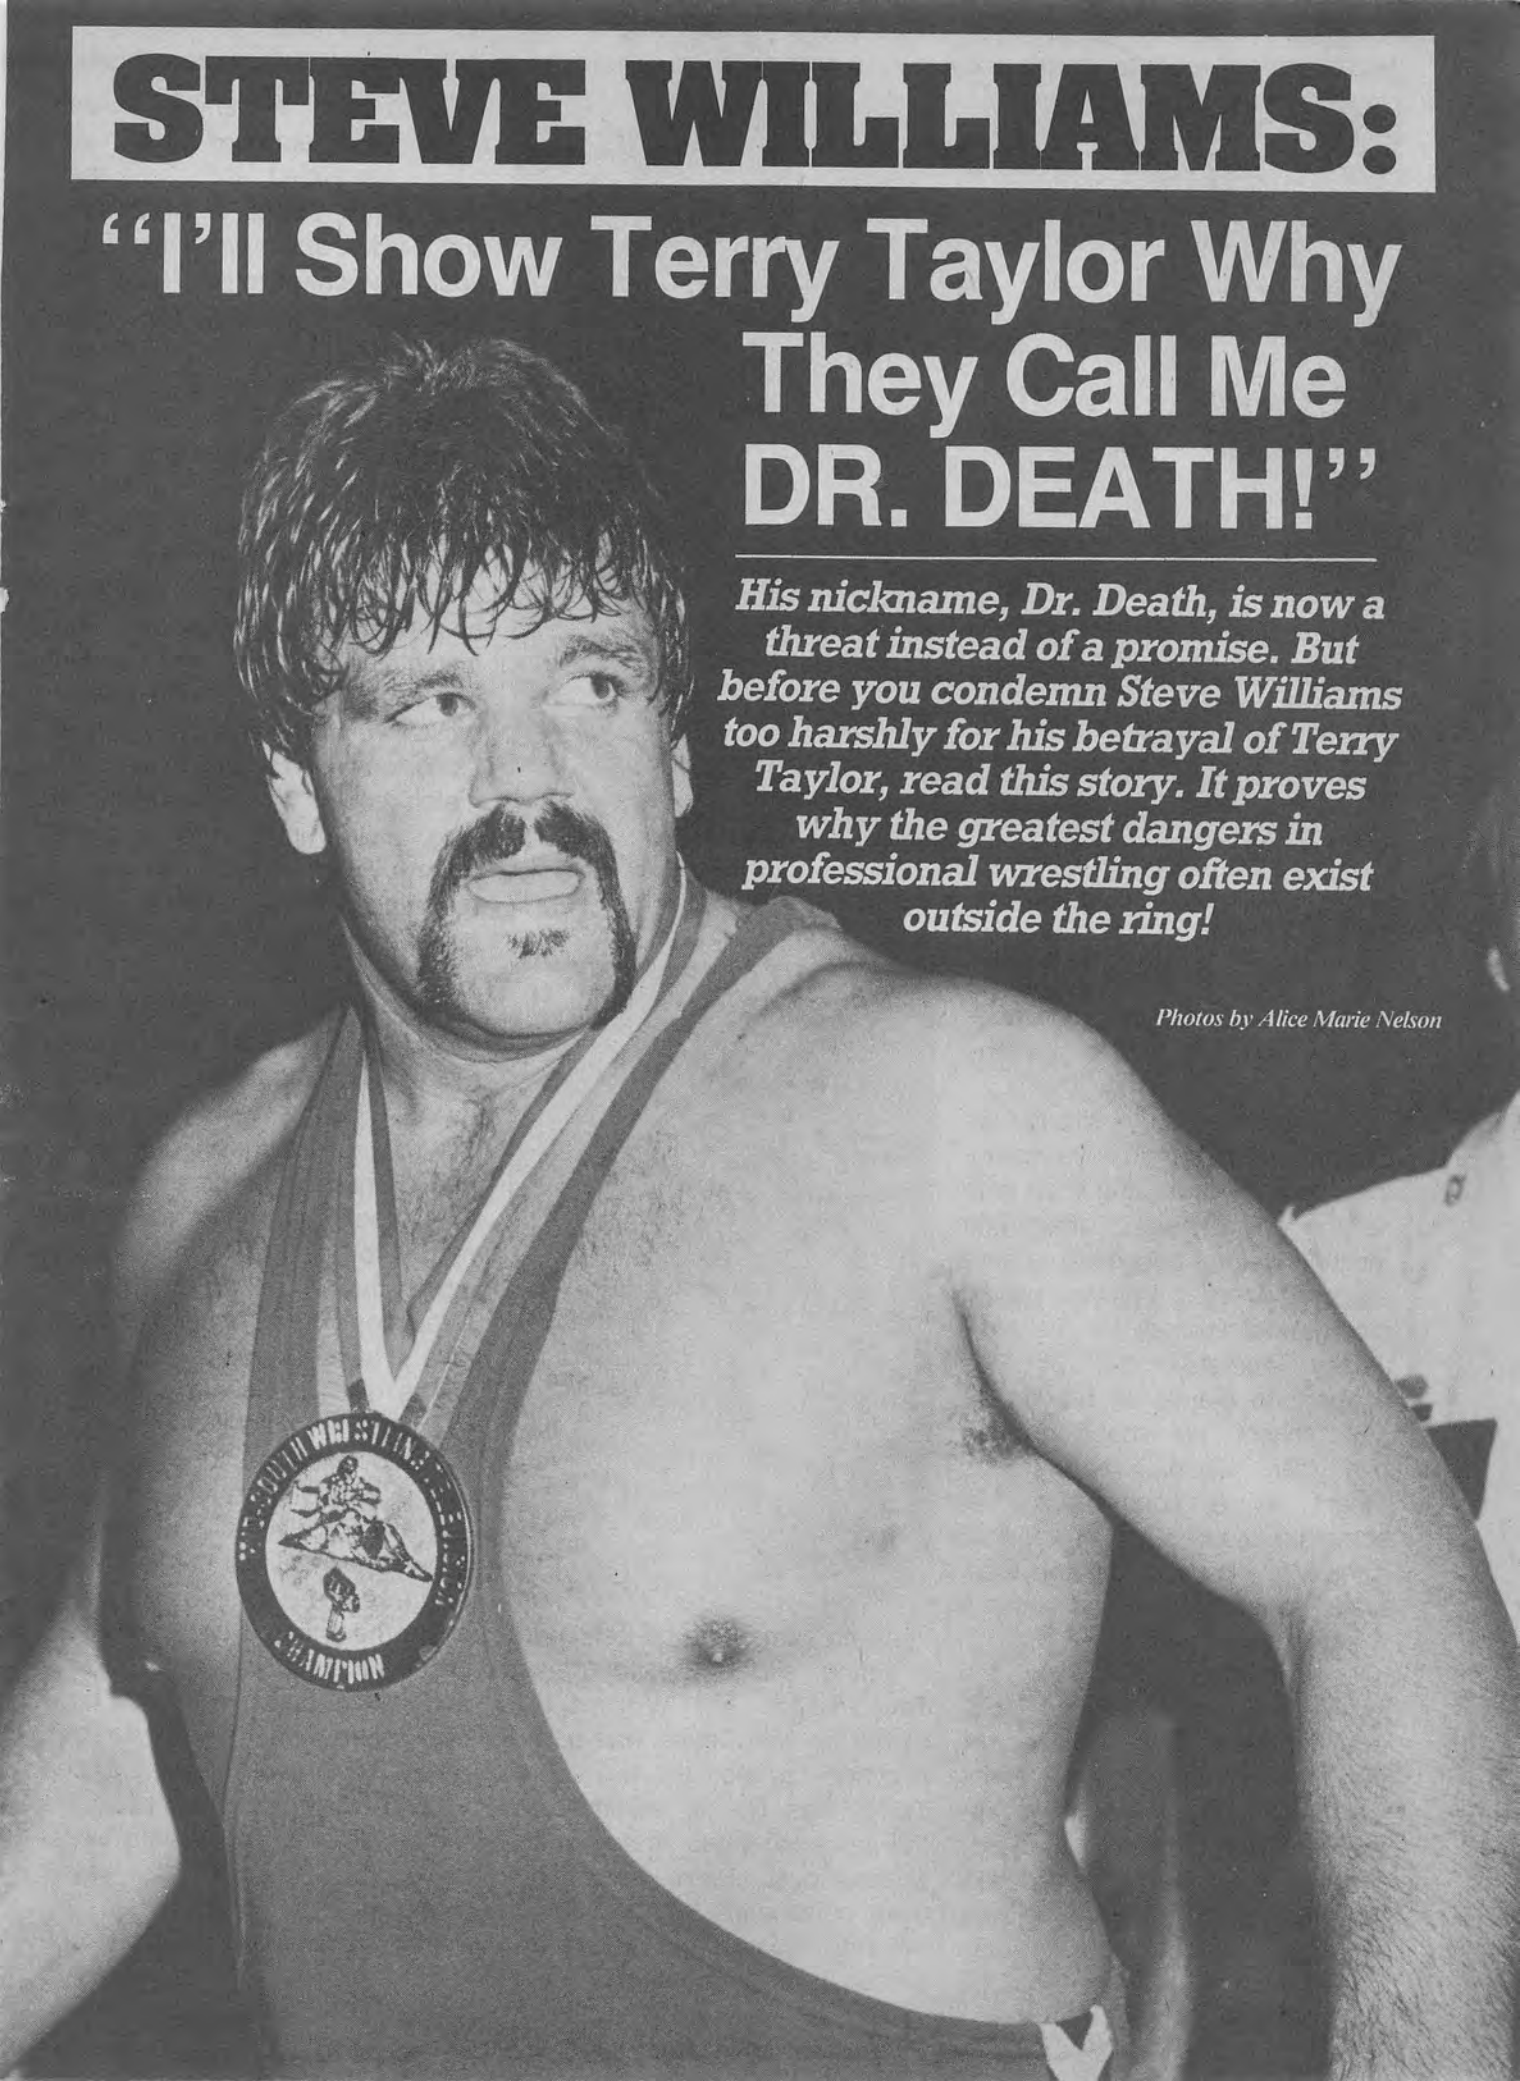
STEVE WILLIAMS:

"I'll Show Terry Taylor Why They Call Me DR. DEATH!"

His nickname, Dr. Death, is now a threat instead of a promise. But before you condemn Steve Williams too harshly for his betrayal of Terry Taylor, read this story. It proves why the greatest dangers in professional wrestling often exist outside the ring!

Photos by Alice Marie Nelson



Holding Taylor in a headlock, Williams sinks to the mat, painfully bending his opponent's back as he drops (above). Dr. Death, showing no mercy, kicks his helpless foe repeatedly in the back (below).

AFTER IT HAPPENED, everyone said it was inevitable. People still can't understand why no one saw it coming.

To comprehend this strange series of events, we must first examine Steve Williams, the man who set the violent state of affairs into motion. Before becoming a professional wrestler, Williams played professional football for the New Jersey Generals of the USFL. It's a sport he played all his life. In high school, his coach dubbed him "Dr. Death," which was meant as a compliment. Yet something soured him on football. After a few games with the Generals, he left football and became a professional wrestler.

Looking back on it now, the switch was profound for the 295-pounder from Tulsa, Oklahoma. For the first time in his life, he wasn't part of a team. It was every man for himself. No longer dependent on teammates to win, Williams flourished. The solitude of a professional wrestler appealed to him.

At the same time he befriended a young, skilled wrestler named Terry Taylor. For Williams, his friendship with Taylor was sort of a bridge between the two sports; Taylor was like a teammate as the pair exchanged strategies and observations. Steve and Terry were considered to have among the strongest professional and personal ties in wrestling.

As so often happens in professional sport, ambition slowly but surely unraveled the ties that bind. What would tear Williams and Taylor apart were the Mid-South TV championship and the gold medal that goes along with that honor. The champion at the time the trouble began was the despised Krusher Khrushchev, a man who proudly proclaims to be a traitor to his country's ideals.

When Taylor got a shot at the title, Williams appeared to be happy for his friend, and at the time he probably thought he was. The match, as are so many when Khrushchev is one of the participants, was an especially brutal exhibition of wrestling fury. The match ended on an inconclusive note, neither man able to claim victory. Williams, later claiming to be protecting his friend's rights, grabbed the gold medal and refused to turn it over to officials.

"When Terry and Krusher next meet," he promised one official, "I'll give the medal to the winner, even if it means handing it over to that rat Khrushchev. Right now, nobody has earned the medal. I'll keep it safe and then give it to the man who deserves it." Then turning to the official, he threatened, "You don't have enough men to take it away from me."

The officials, after a short conference that established nobody wanted to be responsible for a riot, decided to let Williams keep the medal. After all, he was an honorable man and surely intended to keep his promise.

The next time Taylor and Khrushchev met, it was another ugly and savage battle. This time, however, there was a definite outcome. Taylor won the title. Elated with his victory, he turned to his friend Williams and waited to receive his medal. It wasn't forthcoming.

Williams claimed to have forgotten the medal but promised to give it to his friend as soon as possible. Not expecting any betrayal, Taylor accepted this explanation. Few guessed at the time that Williams was anything less than elated with his friend's success.

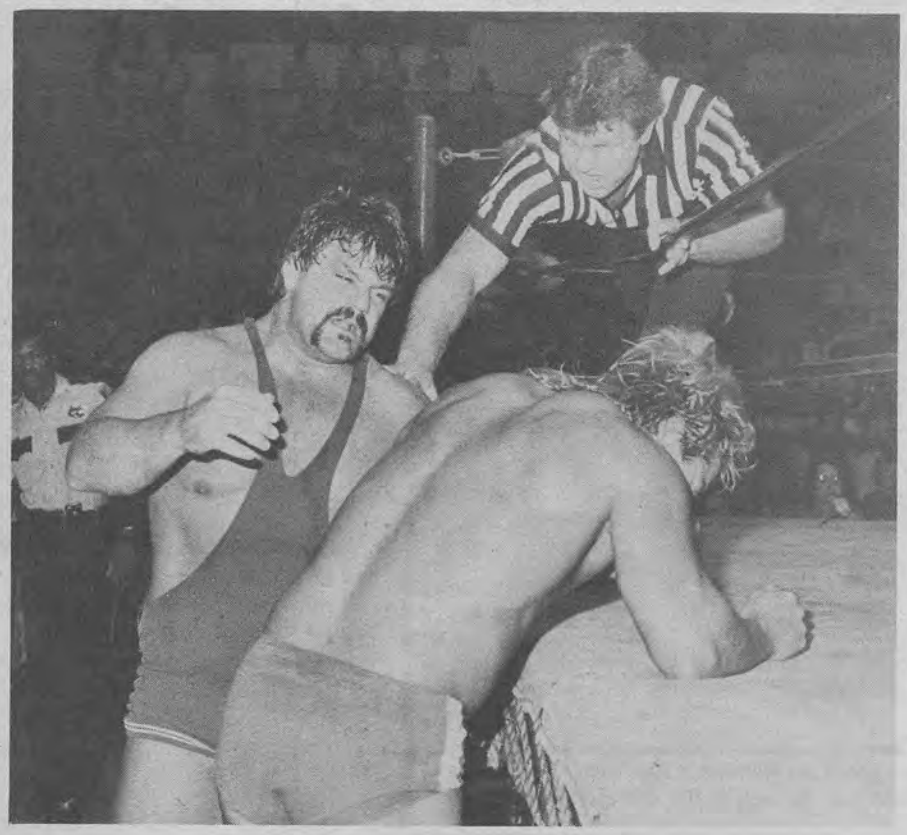
Weeks passed. Williams never gave the medal to Taylor, it's rightful owner. Taylor could no longer dismiss the situation as an oversight. He demanded the medal. Mid-South officials demanded Williams hand over the medal. That's when what everyone suspected became fact.

Williams throws the fatigued Taylor across the ring and through the ropes (above). Dr. Death follows Terry outside the ring where he resumes his brutal onslaught (below). Williams vows to end his former best friend's career.



"I'm not giving up the medal," Williams announced. "If Taylor wants it, he'll have to defeat me for it."

And so, a great friendship was destroyed by one man's success and another's professional jealousy. Even wrestling veterans were shocked by the depth of Williams' rage. As they thought about it, though, it became all too understandable.

Williams, a team player all his life, suddenly discovered only one man can be the success in wrestling. Steve saw that he'd share none of Taylor's prize. When he had advised Taylor about Khrushchev, Williams never fully appreciated that a Taylor victory would do nothing for him. He felt betrayed to the depths of his soul. It went against everything he'd known throughout his entire sport's life.

The shock not only turned Williams against Taylor but against the fans. Suddenly, the nickname Dr. Death didn't mean rulebreakers were in trouble. Instead, scientific wrestlers would feel the wrath of this viciously powerful athlete. Williams named Taylor as his number one target.

"I'll show Terry Taylor why they call me Dr. Death," Williams vowed. "Before I'm finished, Taylor will be begging me to keep the medal. I'm the real champion. He's just the louse who took my shot at the title.

"This is a whole new era in wrestling," Williams concluded. "We now begin Dr. Death's reign of terror. And we mark the beginning of the end of Terry Taylor's career." □

RATINGS ANALYSIS

Every month, this column will tell fans how we go about rating more than 150 wrestlers in 14 different categories. It is a behind-the-scenes look at the most important—and respected—ratings system in the sport. This column is vital reading for all wrestling fans.

Closeup on the Southeast: This installment of "Ratings Analysis" takes a close up look at the Southeast area of the country, which promotes matches in Florida and Alabama.

It might come as a surprise to some of you to learn that the Southeast area, a relatively small promotion, has some of the top names in wrestling right now, including the Armstrong family, Austin Idol, Mr. Wrestling II, Johnny Rich, and Ron Fuller.

"Bullet" Bob Armstrong currently holds the Southeastern Continental heavyweight championship. Austin Idol, "The Universal Heartthrob," holds the Southeast heavyweight title, and the R.A.T. Patrol, consisting of Johnny Rich, Scott Armstrong, and The Tonga Kid, have the Southeast tag team title. Although there are three members of the R.A.T. Patrol, any two members of that squad are allowed to defend the tag team belts at any given time. Scott Armstrong, by the way, is the current holder of the U.S. junior heavyweight championship.

Changes: Don't blink your eyes these days, or you might miss not one, but two or three title changes. Of course, these title changes have a tremendous effect on our ratings, and our ratings committee has been constantly adjusting and readjusting the ratings to keep up with the rush of activity.

Since August 1, the cut-off point of our last ratings period, five major titles have changed hands (one of them twice). In the next few paragraphs, we'll examine the changes and how they have affected the ratings.

The Road Warriors won the AWA World tag team titles. Animal and Hawk, managed by Precious Paul Ellering, dominated the action from the opening bell in defeating Crusher and Baron Von Raschke on August 25 at the Showboat Sports Pavillion in Las Vegas. In the opinion of our editorial staff, this victory, in combination with the string of wins that led them to the title encounter, qualifies the Warriors for the top spot in our tag team ratings. Former champs Von Raschke and Crusher fall completely out of the ratings, and Ivan Koloff and Don Kernodle, the NWA World tag champs, drop to the number two spot.

Pez Whatley

Pistol Pez Whatley, after only 10 days of competition in the state of Florida, defeated Jim Neidhardt for the Southern heavyweight title in Sarasota on August 25. (Neidhardt had beaten Angelo Mosca for the belt only two weeks earlier.) Whatley moves into the top spot in the Florida ratings. Florida champion Scott McGhee remains number two, and former Southern champ Neidhardt drops to number nine. Mosca has left the area and is not currently rated in any of our regional ratings.

Mike Von Erich is the new World Class American champion. The youngest of the wrestling Von Erich brothers filled in for brother Kevin, who had missed an airline connection, and defeated Gino Hernandez on August 4 in Dallas for the belt. Hernandez also holds the Texas title, which was not on the line in this match. Von Erich rises to the number one spot from seventh place, directly above Hernandez.

Eddie Gilbert defeated Tommy Rich in Memphis on August 27 to win the Mid-Southern International title. The feud between these former championship tag team partners intensifies daily. Rich drops to number four behind Gilbert, Mid-Southern heavyweight champ King Kong Bundy, and top contender Jerry Lawler.

Cowboy Ron Bass defeated Angelo Mosca Jr. for the Mid-Atlantic heavyweight title August 29 in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Bass has just arrived in the Mid-Atlantic region from Florida and has quickly proved himself a dominant force in the area, holding the Mid-Atlantic tag title with Black Bart as well as the Mid-Atlantic singles belt.

changed hands from Rick Steamboat to Wahoo McDaniel, the NWA, for the first time, has held up this major title. As of now, there is no U.S. champion.

Well, Barry Windham will do his best to change that. Having followed Barry during his recent years in Florida, I'm certain that his fans here in the Mid-Atlantic area will see a definite change in this young man. He is more experienced, more determined, and more confident in himself than he has ever been before. I'm looking forward to seeing him in person, and I hope you'll give him the coverage he deserves while he's here.

We have some of the best competitors in the NWA here in the Mid-Atlantic area, and all eyes are on that U.S. belt. It won't be the first time that Barry Windham has had his work cut out for him. But, in case he's reading this, I'd like him to know Road Warrior Hawk is in full control against Baron Von Raschke. Reader Grace Yolan was at the Showboat Sports Pavilion when The Road Warriors won the AWA tag team title from Von Raschke and Crusher and was amazed at their brutality.

ble for this. The unfortunate Piper has been victimized by the arrogance, insolence, and ill-manneredness of the likes of Rocky Johnson, Frankie Williams, and most recently, Jimmy Snuka.

During the Snuka interview, Piper tried repeatedly to converse intelligently with Snuka, but Snuka found that tearing down the "Piper's Pit" set and chasing Piper out of the studio was preferable to intelligent conversation.

Thumbs up to Roddy Piper. He is to be commended for his patience and tolerance of many of his simple-minded guests.

KEVIN CURRIER

HAIL THE WARRIORS

I am delirious about The Road Warriors winning the AWA World tag team championship from Crusher and Baron Von Raschke. Animal and Hawk are the biggest, meanest, strongest, most powerful men in professional wrestling, and Paul Ellering is the most cunning, brilliant manager in the sport. It is a credit to their combined talents that they were able to overcome the vast experience of Crusher and Von Raschke.

I was at the Showboat Sports Pavilion for the title match, and it amazed me just how powerful these men are. I had seen them on TV, but you really can't imagine how ferocious they are until you see them in an arena. Before you knew it, they had the champs at a serious disadvantage. Ellering barked instructions to his men, and the Warriors carried out his orders to perfection.

Crusher and Von Raschke are screaming about how the Warriors won illegally, but I think they're just jealous. There were no foreign objects used and there was no interference by Ellering. Crusher was actually the man at fault. He was the man who distracted the referee's attention. It didn't matter, though, because the Warriors' pinning combination was perfectly legal. Any double-teaming occured within the referee's five-count.

So, don't believe anyone who tells you that the Warriors don't deserve those belts. In my opinion, they deserve the titles more than any team around. They're the best.

responsibility to the public. They are the people who pay your salary. My goals are the same as they were when Garvin was here, to be the best wrestler I can be. I hope that in 20 years I'm still learning more."

Wahoo McDaniel, whose popularity decreases daily, says he would welcome a match with Dusty Rhodes.

Q: "My question is for Wahoo McDaniel: What's happened to you? A wrestling fan used to be able to trust you to uphold the tenets of justice and fair play. Now no one can trust you. I just hope that someone gets a piece of your hide, and I hope that someone is Dusty Rhodes."—Steve November, Mt. Vernon, NY

A: "What did justice and fair play ever do for me," McDaniel replied. "Nothing! And I'll tell you what. Let Dusty Rhodes come after me. I'll show all of you that your American Dream is just a fat old nightmare. Come on, Dusty. Throw that 302 pounds into the ring after me, if you can get up to the ring apron." □

MARTEL-ATLAS

Martel has been receiving some criticism for giving Bockwinkel so many title shots. Rick explains that it is the promoters who tell him whom to wrestle, and that he would welcome the challenge of Tony Atlas.

him defend the title against the best wrestlers around. That's what makes a title reign special."

Along with Saito, Brad Rheingans, and Billy Robinson, Atlas is one of the best in the AWA. The AWA Championship Committee, however, has seen fit to grant most of the recent title shots to Bockwinkel.

"I know that Bockwinkel has held the title, and he's still rated number one," Martel said, "but there are other deserving wrestlers, and Atlas is definitely one of them. I want to wrestle them all, including Robinson, Rheingans, Saito, Curt Hennig . . . but I'm not the matchmaker. I wrestle who they tell me to."

He looks forward to testing his skills against the former Mr. U.S.A. "Beating Atlas will be tough, because he is so strong, and quick, and smart. Every basic hold he applies is all the more weakening because he's so strong. He can practically beat you with headlocks. Sure, it'll be tough, but not impossible. I plan to be champion for a long time, even if I have to wrestle Tony as many times as I've wrestled Bockwinkel."

Atlas, who learned the frustration of being denied a deserved title shot while he was in the WWF, is hopeful that this match will take place. The AWA has a history of matching scientific wrestlers in title matches. "I believe that Rick really does wanna wrestle me," Atlas said. "And he has to know that I would like nothin' better than to take that title away from him. Personally, I think he must be getting tired of wrestling Bockwinkel. Rick keeps beating him, though, and after all these matches I think the AWA will finally drop Nick in the ratings, and that will leave Saito and me.

"I've beaten Saito," Atlas continued, "but not decisively. Once I do I'll get my chance at the title, and I'm not gonna let it pass without the biggest effort of my career. I'm gonna be ready. Rick Martel is in for the toughest match of his career." □

he's very happy, but the facts of his success are simply overwhelming him right now. He's a levelheaded kid, and if anyone can cope with quick success, it's Mike.

"But anyone, even the most levelheaded of kids, can allow himself to lapse into carelessness now and then," Fritz continued. "In the case of the World Class American champion, the title has to be defended against some of the most formidable competition in all of professional wrestling.

"Now I'm not saying I don't trust Mike, or that I don't have confidence in him, or that he's not a capable champion. That's not it at all. Mike just doesn't have the experience of some of his challengers. I don't want to see Mike get hurt. And considering some of the things that guys like Gino Hernandez or The Missing Link can do to a man . . . well, I think you know what I'm getting at."

What Fritz was getting at was the fact that someone like Gino Hernandez, a notorious rulebreaker who enjoys inflicting more-than-necessary punishment, can severely injure a wrestler like Mike Von Erich, who has less than a year of professional experience.

To Mike's credit, he has been trained by some of the best wrestlers in the entire world. To train under the guidance of Fritz Von Erich is to learn from one of the true legends of professional wrestling. And Mike's brothers Kerry and Kevin work with him constantly.

Still, Mike Von Erich is young and vulnerable. In addition to having a relatively low level of experience, Mike gives away anywhere from 20 to 60 pounds per match, depending on his opponent.

"I'm not pulling my hair out or anything," Fritz said, "and I'm not about to sit down with Mike and start giving him warnings and advice. But I am keeping an eye on him, and I'm watching to make sure that he doesn't falter too much.

"This situation Mike is in can have a double effect," Fritz said. "Either the pressure will be too much and Mike will lose the title, hopefully without serious injury, or Mike will face up to the pressure and become that much more of a superb wrestler because of it. Call me a worried father and I'll tell you I'm thinking too much about the first possibility. Call me a proud father, and I'll admit I think about the second alternative."

No doubt the World Class wrestling fans are thinking about that second alternative as well. Mike Von Erich is facing the toughest challenges of his life right now, and facing them successfully could lift him to the level of the men who trained him. □

weight title on August 29 in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. The victory came shortly after Bass' entrance into the Mid-Atlantic from the Florida area. Bass also holds a portion of the Mid-Atlantic tag team title with Black Bart. Bass and Bart, also known as The Long Riders, won the newly reactivated championship in a recent tournament. Bass and Bart teamed frequently in Florida in the past, and at one time held the U.S. tag team title in the Sunshine State.

Eddie Gilbert defeated former "Fabulous One" tag team partner Tommy Rich for the Mid-Southern International heavyweight title. Gilbert, who came to the ring with Jimmy Hart, pulled out a chain and used it to savagely beat Rich. But when Tommy kneelifted Gilbert, the chain fell to the mat. Rich went for the chain and found himself in a tug-of-war with referee Paul Morton. Meanwhile, Hart called Gilbert over to the corner and told him, "if you want to be champion, take this." Hart gave Gilbert another chain, and Gilbert used it to beat Rich again and illegally take the title.

Chris Adams has announced that he is "sick and tired of getting the raw deals here in the World Class area." Citing several instances where he was promised title matches and never received them, Adams has stated that he will soon be "taking steps to assure that I get what's coming to me. All I want is what I deserve." Step number one for Adams has been to take on Gary Hart as adviser and mentor.

There seems to infighting going on in the "cult" of Kevin Sullivan. During a recent match in Orlando, Florida, Sullivan's attendants, Fallen Angel and The Lock, got into an argument over which one will comb Sullivan's hair prior to the start of the match. Sullivan separated them and sent Angel back to the dressing room area, solving the problem for the moment. But it appears as if there may be trouble ahead for The Lock and Fallen Angel, with Sullivan caught in the middle!

Steve Armstrong, the son of Bob Armstrong, is wrestling in the Southeast area, where he is known as "The Gulf Breeze Giant" ... Ivan Koloff is the current Canadian heavyweight champion ... Ox Baker is wrestling in the Central States area.

Dr. Ken Ramey is managing The Golden Boy and Rip Tyler, also known as The Hollywood Blonds, in the Georgia area ... Hulk Hogan lost a recent WWF heavyweight title defense in St. Louis to George "The Animal" Steele when Steele tossed Hogan out of the ring and the champ was counted out ... J.J. Dillon is negotiating to bring The Zambuie Express to the Mid-Atlantic area.

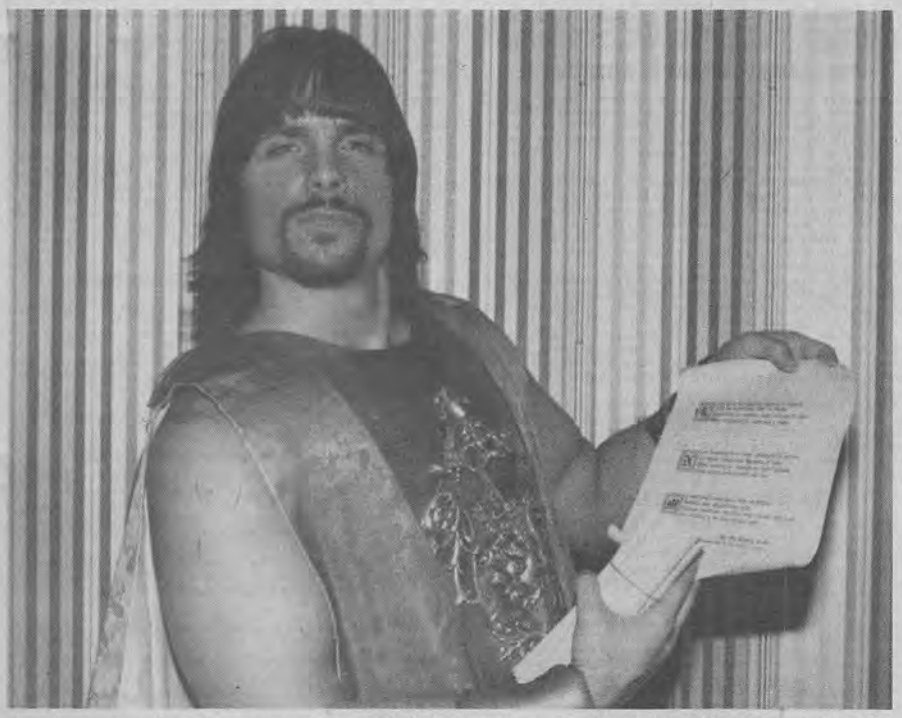
Throughout the Mid-Southern area, Lanny Poffo has been handing out scrolls to the fans. These scrolls, signed "By Sir Lanny Poffo, The First Knight of the Squared Circle," read:

Look back through the annals of history
And the wrestling Hall of Fame
Men from all nations with courage to spare
Who struggled to carve out a name

Now compare these high standards of valour
To those chivalrous Knights of yore
With bravery as staunch as their armour
Their glory both legend and lore

My medieval connection with wrestling
Relives that magnificent past
Though mindless skeptics may snicker and scoff
The winner is he who laughs last

And that's what's happening. See you at the matches! □



Sir Lanny Poffo holds up one of the scrolls he has been handing out to the fans at ringside. Poffo's new attitude about himself and his profession has alienated him from the fans.

Now—enjoy a life of unbelievable riches, lasting love and constant protection with the secrets in this startling WITCH BOOK—

THE MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT

You'll discover how it can bring abundant and overflowing wealth, find or bring back a lover, ward off evil influences, and much more—step-by-step in plain English, with complete easy-to-follow instructions!

Yes . . . Witchcraft! Every time you hear the word it brings with it the feelings of deep occult secrets—secrets that you would like to know so that your life can be better; so that your enemies will stop bothering you; so that serenity, love, power and comfort can be yours!

THE MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT lays bare these secrets for the first time: Do you want a bank account bursting at the seams with money? A love life that would make a sultan envious? Supreme power to crush your enemies and reward your friends? What would it be worth to you to utter a simple incantation that would cause any pain to vanish? Or say another, and immediately recover some lost object?

What would it be worth to you to fly through time and space, on astral wings, as Witches do . . . go wherever you wish . . . do whatever you wish . . . without being detected . . . watch the antics of others behind closed doors . . . hear private conversations . . . make time run forward or backward . . . read tomorrow's newspaper in a "black mirror" . . . find out what really happened in history . . . make your face old or young at will!

Witches have known for centuries that people are scared of them and their powers! And rightly so! NOW YOU CAN SHARE THE SAME POWER that gives you—literally—life and death control over other persons! Is someone bothering you? No problem at all, with Magic Witchcraft. For example, there is a spell called the "Cross Not My Path" ritual, for people who are having neighbor trouble. When you use it, you know you will never again have trouble with this neighbor!

With these amazing Witchcraft secrets, other people will look up to you—in awe—you'll automatically dazzle others with your power to make things happen at your will, you'll be Master of your destiny, and never have to apologize to anyone for anything!

Whatever you want or need, whatever frustration is bothering you, Witchcraft will help you. It is not evil—nor is it Black Magic. Like electricity, it is simply a power given by nature for the use of men, to make life easier.

You'll see how to get paid without working . . . how to get expensive clothes and furs FREE . . . how to get a first-class plane seat FREE . . . how to vacation at the finest hotels, motels, pools and pleasure palaces, start living like a millionaire as Witches do!

AMAZING TECHNIQUE HAS HELPED THOUSANDS!

Witchcraft secrets like these can make you rich faster than anything else in the world! Here's how others have used them to make miracles happen in their daily lives!

You'll see how Vern, a man who likes to give a lot of expensive parties, was always short of cash until he discovered the amazing WITCH'S MONEY JAR—now all he has to do is dip in, for it brings him an endless flow of cash! Evelyn, a waitress, was always lending money to friends, and was always broke. Finally, she placed her last dollar on the table, and worked the MONEY MAGNET SPELL over it. All at once, dozens of people who had borrowed money from her, rushed to pay her back!

Hank was perpetually broke. One night he got together with some friends, and they decided to cast the MONEY SPELL. The very next day, Hank received in the mail a check for some $250 worth of insurance. (He had never heard of the company that sent the check, he was not insured with them, and had never even made a claim—but he accepted the money.) Another member of the group that used the spell, a 40-year-old secretary, received an automobile as a gift! All the other members of the group received amazing windfalls of money, as well! You'll see how Dexter, a retiree, lives RENT FREE and receives $200 a week at the age of 78, with a secret you'll find in this Witch Book! You'll see how Claudine, a secretary, was able to wear the finest, most expensive furs—FREE—and spend weekends at an expensive ski lodge in the mountains, where she met a wonderful man! How Ruth L., a widow—with nothing but a small pension, and a little savings—received her dream house, by using a simple 5-minute ritual on page 38 of this book!

Using the same Witchcraft secrets, YOU can achieve peace of mind and freedom from money worries for the rest of your life!

YOU CAN HEAL YOURSELF AS WITCHES DO!

Feeling sick today? Plagued by a lot of troublesome illnesses? Perhaps some relative is sick and constantly demanding your attention? Or perhaps it is even a pet that needs help? With the MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT, you can cure anything, say authors Gavin and Yvonne Frost: "In our experience . . . we have not found a single incurable disease!"

• ANDY DISSOLVES A GALLSTONE!—Andy M. developed gallstones. When his illness became too troublesome to ignore, he went to a doctor. Urine tests revealed that he was chronically alkaline. His body was badly out of balance. Using this Witchcraft method to restore balance to the mind and body—in a short while, X-rays showed that he had no more gallstones! Andy never again suffered the excruciating pain of passing stones!

In the same way, say Gavin and Yvonne Frost, almost all illness can be prevented. You are actually employing an ancient Witchcraft method to remove diseased tissue! Even if you do not have any belief in the results, the power will work for you!

One woman, who had been in a wheelchair for 26 years, due to polio and arthritis, used the Witchcraft healing method, and reported that she had no pain and could walk and garden again! A man reported that his son's deep 3rd degree burns miraculously healed overnight!

• SO SIMPLE A CHILD USES IT!—A 4-year-old girl asked if she could try to heal a man who was limping—due to a torn ligament—with this simple Witchcraft healing method. In a matter of moments, she started her chant, laying her hands on the weak ankle. The man was miraculously cured! To skeptics, this should be convincing PROOF that anyone can use it!

AMAZING POWER CAN BE YOURS!

Whether you want infinite wealth, or just a comfortable new home, financial security, fine possessions, love, companionship, new health and vigor, power to control others, secret knowledge, protection from evil, or anything else, the magic power of Witchcraft can bring it to you quickly, easily and automatically! It's the easiest thing in the world!

• HOW TO SEE INTO THE FUTURE!—Would you like to be able to see the future? You CAN with the magic Black Mirror you'll see how to make on page 23. All you need is some ink and a bowl of water. • MAKE TIME RUN BACKWARD OR FORWARD!—A Witch uses ancient methods to make time stand still or to run it backward or forward! To make your face look young or old at will, all you need is some morning dew, and the instructions on page 27. You can fly through time and space, on astral wings, go anywhere, do anything, with the simple method on page 126. You can visit a friend, look in on an acquaintance and see what he is doing—even appear in someone's dreams, and convince that person to do whatever you wish!

• SECRETS OF SILENT PERSUASION!—There is a magic handshake that Witches often use, revealed on page 62. With this secret, you can implant a thought in someone's mind! If you haven't started to see substantial weight gain within 7 days, and if you don't feel better and look better as a result, or, if you are not completely satisfied for any reason, PAY NOTHING! It's just as simple as that.

If you are in doubt . . . even if you think nothing can possibly help you, for the sake of your appearance, and your happiness, at least try it! If the GAIN Plan works the way we know it will, you'll agree it is worth the few dollars it cost.

On the other hand, if it doesn't work the way you expected, it costs you nothing, and a least you have had the satisfaction of trying it at our expense.

What could be fairer than that? The next move is up to you. Once and for all, determine to do something about your underweight! We know you'll be happy you did.

SKINNY MEN AND WOMEN ARE NOT ATTRACTIVE

. . . a skinny, scrawny body is no asset in social or business life. Give the GAIN Plan a chance to help build you up and put firm flesh on you.

GAIN IS SAFE

GAIN is not a dangerous drug, medicine or a fishy-tasting oil. It is made of safe, pure ingredients, contains nothing which could possibly harm you, and may even be taken with complete safety by children.
